CHAMPIONS TROPHY: HYBRID MODEL AGREED IN PRINCIPLE

ICC likely to announce CT formula on Saturday after Pakistan and Indian cricket boards reportedly agree in principle to play at neutral venues

DUBAI MOST-LIKELY VENUE FOR INDIA

It is understood that India could play in Dubai during the CT next year to be held from February 19 to March 9. Reports indicate that when India host 2025 Women's ODI World Cup and 2026 men's WC, Pakistan will not travel here and play against India at a neutral venue (could be Colombo for men's WC). If India reach final then it could be at a neutral venue

OTHER SEVEN TEAMS TO PLAY IN PAK

- The CT features eight teams, divided into two groups and all countries, except India, have agreed to play in Pakistan
- The PCB had said that it was willing to accept the hybrid model only if the same arrangement will be made for all ICC events
- India have not travelled to Pakistan since the 2008 Asia Cup

Rajnath Singh, Priyanka trade barbs in debate

Discussion to mark 75th year of Constitution

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE much-anticipated debate to commemorate the 75th year of the Constitution kicked off on Friday with the ruling BJP-led NDA and Opposition INDIA bloc sparring over Constitutional values, its relevance and key political issues.

Initiating the debate in the Lok Sabha, Union defence minister Rajnath Singh attacked the Congress saying a particular party always tried to 'hijack and appropriate' the framing of the Constitution. Rajnath said the Congress made 28 Constitutional amendments during Indira Gandhi's tenure and 10 during Rajiv Gandhi's rule. And the Manmohan Singh government made seven amendments. The BJP has never compromised the independence and autonomy of institutions and always adhered to the Constitution, Rajnath said.

The Constitution talked about religious freedom and it had been specified that the state would not have a religion but be secular, he added. "Opposition leaders carry the Constitution in their pockets, they have done this for generations, but the BJP holds it to its forehead," Rajnath said.

Opening the debate for the Opposition, Congress MP Priyanka Gandhi Vadra rebutted Rajnath's criticisms. "Treasury bench members keep talking about the past and Nehru. Why don't you talk about the present? Tell the country what you are doing. Is everything Nehru's responsibility?" she asked in her first address in Parliament.

Priyanka also hit out at the government over the Adani issue, which invited protests. "Farm laws have been changed for industrialists. Cold storages in Himachal Pradesh were given to Adani by the Centre. Ports, airports, factories, mines and public sector units are controlled by one person. The poor are getting poorer, while the rich are getting richer," she alleged.

Referring to Rajnath's criticism of Emergency, Priyanka said, "Learn from what happened in 1975. Why don't you go back to ballot paper?"

Criticishing Prime Minister Narendra Modi, she said, "Maybe he hasn't understood that this is the Constitution of India, not the Sangh's."

Darshan, 6 others get bail in murder case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE High Court of Karnataka on Friday granted bail to actor Darshan and six other accused in the Renukaswamy murder case. The other accused are Pavithra Gowda, Nagaraju R, Anukumar, Lakshman M, Jagadeesh and Pradoosh S Rao.

The bail was granted on the grounds of delay in recording the statements of witnesses and non-furnishing of reasons for their arrest immediately to provide them an opportunity to defend themselves against custodial remand and to seek bail.

Noting that this procedure was in force since October 3, 2023, as per the orders of the Supreme Court and its non-compliance entitles the accused for bail, the court said the accused were arrested on different dates. However, the grounds for the arrest of all the accused are similar -- like a cyclostyled copy. Justice S Vishwajith Shetty stated these reasons for granting bail in his common order, while allowing the bail petitions filed by the accused.

The prosecution contended that a memo of grounds of arrest was served on the accused immediately after their arrest. The court, however, said if it is accepted, then the question arises as to why there was delay in recording the statements of the witnesses. More so, the statement of prime eyewitness Kiran, whose statement under 161 of CrPC was recorded on June 15 and another statement under Section 164 of CrPC on June 22, 2024, the court said. P3

'It's a temporary relief'

Chitradurga: Reacting to the HC granting bail to Darshan and six others, Kashinathaiah, father of Renukaswamy, said, "I have full faith in judiciary. Justice will be delivered to us. The bail is a temporary relief. We will consult our relatives on contacting the government to move SC against the bail order."

Approach BC panel for 2A quota, Siddaramaiah tells Panchamasalis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayapura

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Friday advised the Panchamasali community to approach the Permanent Commission for Backward Classes for reservation under 2A category.

Siddaramaiah on Thursday termed the community's 'pressure tactics' for reservation as unconstitutional.

Referring to the report of former commission chairman Jayaprakash Hegde, he told reporters here that the present quota under 2A and 2B categories should remain unchanged. The 4% reservation under 2B category should not be abolished.

Replying to the allegation of opposition parties that the government is against the demand of Panchamasalis, Siddaramaiah said while views of all leaders, including Basava Jaya Mruthyunjaya seer, are welcome, a decision on the community's demand will be taken in accordance with the Constitution. Switzerland withdraws MFN status for India

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

IN a retaliatory action, Switzerland has withdrawn the Most Favoured Nation (MFN) status granted to India, which will result in higher tax implications for Indian companies operating in the central European country. The Swiss action came after India's Supreme Court rejected automatic applicability of MFN clause under the bilateral tax treaty in a case related to Swiss firm Nestle.

In its December 11 order, the Swiss government said the SC's ruling shows Switzerland's interpretation of MFN clause under the Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement is not shared by the Indian side. Therefore, it said it was waiving its unilateral application of MFN clause with effect from January 1, 2025. Accordingly, income accruing on or after January 1, 2025 may be taxed in Switzerland at higher rates. The applicable residual rates on dividend paid by Indian firms in Switzerland would be 10% instead of 5% under MFN clause.

The MFN clause provides for lowering of rate of taxation at source on dividends, interest, royalties, or fees for technical services similar to concessions given to other countries.

"Switzerland's move underscores the growing emphasis on reciprocity and mutual agreement in the interpretation of treaty provisions," said Sandeep Jhunjhunwala, M&A tax partner, Nangia Andersen.

RAPE-MURDER CASE

RG Kar ex-head, cop get bail

SULAGNA SENGUPTA @ Kolkata

A Sealdah court on Friday granted bail to Sandip Ghosh, former principal of state-run R G Kar Medical College and Hospital in Kolkata, and Abhijit Mondol, former officer in-charge of the Tala police station, in the horrific rape-murder case of a junior doctor four months ago.

While Mondal was accused of delay in filing the FIR in the case, Ghosh was charged with tampering with evidence.

The court granted them bail as the CBI failed to submit its chargesheet within the mandatory 90 days. For its part, the CBI said its probe against the accused is ongoing.

The shocked parents of the RG Kar hospital victim waiting for justice said the system is failing them. "We thought the CBI would speed up the probe. But now, with the accused being granted bail, it feels like the system is failing us," said the mother of the murdered doctor.

Massive protests had erupted across the country after the rape-murder of the doctor in the hospital on August 9. The police arrested Sanjay Roy, a civic volunteer, a day later. The CBI has filed its chargesheet against Roy.

While Mondal is expected to walk out of prison, Ghosh will remain in jail in another case of alleged financial irregularities at R G Kar.

₹5k-cr plan to shield city from rain woes

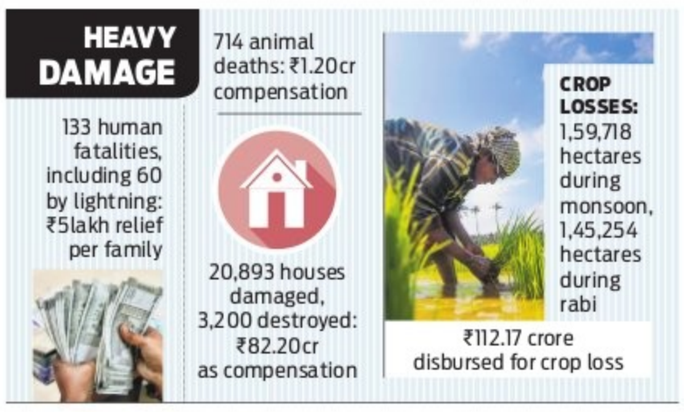
Rs 2000 crore to be allocated to BBMP, Rs 1000 crore to BWSSB for infrastructure devpt

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA
@Belagavi

THE STATE government is set to implement a comprehensive Disaster Mitigation Plan aimed at providing a lasting solution to Bengaluru's rain-related challenges. It involves an investment of Rs 5,000 crore to enhance critical infrastructure and bolster existing facilities, and Rs 425 crore to address similar issues in rural areas across the State.

In the assembly on Friday, Revenue Minister Krishna Byregowda provided details about the plan, highlighting damages caused by unseasonal and erratic rain during the monsoon and kharif seasons, impacting crops, livestock and property. Of Rs 5,000 crore, the government intends to borrow Rs 3,000 crore from the World Bank and secure Rs 2,000 crore from the Finance and Disaster Mitigation departments.

The minister specified that Rs 2,000 crore would be allocated to Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) and Rs 1,000 crore to Bengaluru Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB). BBMP's share will be used to enhance stormwater drain capacity, while BWSSB will focus on expanding the underground drainage (UGD) network and preventing sewage from entering stormwater drains. The remaining Rs 2,000 crore will be dedicated to critical infrastructure.



Krishna explained that Bengaluru's stormwater drain network spans approximately 1,100km, including tertiary drains. Of these, 675km have already been embanked, with BBMP responsible for completing the remaining works. The government has also identified 863 gram panchayats across the State, particularly in Dakshina Kannada, Uttara Kannada, Shivamogga, Udupi, and Chikkamagaluru, which are prone to recurring droughts and floods. Using data from the National Geological Survey, the government will allocate Rs 425 crore for disaster mitigation.

The first tranche of Rs 115.85 crore will soon be released to fund 152 projects. Additionally, the government has received proposals from various districts to address urban flooding, with Rs 184 crore earmarked for repairing stormwater drains, roads, bridges and other public infrastructure.

Temporary relief measures

To provide relief from damage caused by 20 per cent excess rainfall during the monsoon and kharif seasons, Krishna reported that the government has released Rs 297 crore in temporary aid, with 75 per cent going to affected individuals. The state's diverse agro-climatic zones experience rainfall ranging from 400mm to 4,000mm annually.

PIL ON E-KHATA

HC seeks response on mandatory use for registration

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Friday sought a response from the state government on a public interest litigation filed by a financial professional from the city, against the circular issued by the Stamps and Registration Department mandating e-khata for property registration, until BBMP confirms e-khata is available for all existing properties and a time-bound process is established for new properties.

The division bench of Chief Justice NV Anjaria and Justice KV Aravind asked the state government to file a reply after hearing the petition filed by Gowrishankar S as party-in-person, and adjourned the hearing to February 3, 2025. However, it has not issued a notice.

The petitioner stated that the e-khata system, launched with the aim of digitizing Karnataka's land records, suffers crucial implementation challenges, particularly in BBMP wards. While the government has mandated the use of e-khata for property registrations, the system remains incomplete and suffers from procedural gaps and data errors.

BBMP's partial rollout, coupled with the ongoing digitization of properties and numerous inaccuracies in draft e-khatas, creates barriers for citizens. The system is not yet fully functional, and requiring its use for property registration is premature, causing inconvenience and legal and financial risks for property owners, the petitioner claimed, pointing out a media report about the decline in registration of properties after the issue was introduced.

He prayed to court to issue directions to the state government to allow property registration without e-khata in cases where the system is not enabled, an application is pending, or alternative documents to prove ownership exist, based on self-declaration. He also requested directions to establish a transparent and timely process for obtaining e-khata within the stipulated timeline.

Also requesting the court to bring e-khata services under the Sakala Act to ensure timely delivery and prevent delays in the registration process, the petitioner stated that there is a need for dissemination of information on khata issuance or transfer, fees and other procedures to ensure awareness and transparency.

Issue TDRs to hasten road-widening projects in RR Nagar zone: Girinath

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BRUHAT Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Chief Commissioner, Tushar Girinath has directed officials to prioritise road widening projects in the RR Nagar zone through the issuance of Transferable Development Rights (TDRs) and ensure their completion at the earliest.

During a 'Chief Commissioner's Walk in the Zone' on Friday, Girinath addressed various public grievances. One resident raised concerns about encroachments along Kodipalya Main Road, where TDRs had already been issued for widening. In response, Girinath instructed the Executive Engineer of the Road Infrastructure Department to visit the site and inspect it. If any encroachments are found, he emphasised that they should be cleared within 7 days and a report should be submitted. He further directed that the road widening work be initiated immediately and completed within the stipulated time.

Addressing another concern about chemical contamination in the area around Herohalli Lake, located about 1.5 km from the lake, Girinath called for a joint inspection by the Zonal Commissioner, the Lakes Division, the Rajakaluve Division, and the officials of the Pollution Control Board. The purpose of the inspection is to determine the source of the chemical pollution and take appropriate action against those responsible. He also instructed officials to take immdeiate steps to eliminate the foul odour affecting the area. On request from public for park maintenance, he said 139 parks will come up in the RR Nagar limits, of which necessary steps are being taken to develop 49 parks.

Responding to complaints regarding the slow place pace of the white- topping work on MEI Road, which has caused significant traffic disruptions and pollution, Girinath directed the Project Division to finish the 950-metre stretch to be completed by March 2025. The road is a link between Tumkur Road, Kateerava Studio Main Road and Nandini Layout in the western part of the city. The ongoing white-topping work has exacerbated traffic congestion and contributed to pollution, leading resudebrs and motorists to appeal to the civic body for quicker completion of the project.

Instant repair: Ecofix mix tech to fix potholes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

TO address the issue of potholes that surface due to rains, BBMP has decided to use steel slag-based Ecofix technology on a pilot basis.

Principal engineer of Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) BS Prahalad said potholes not only disrupt traffic and cause congestion but also lead to road accidents. To address the same, India's leading road research institute, Central Road Research Institute (CRRI), in collaboration with Ramuka Global Services launched a pilot project of steel slag based Ecofix technology near Anjani Temple on Avenue Road. CRRI with BBMP aims to repair potholes in the city. "Ecofix technology is a boon to the city. While majority of hot mix plants cannot operate during the rainy season, Ecofix can carry out durable road repairs in an eco-friendly manner," he said.

Ecofix is developed using industrial waste from steel industries like iron and steel slag and can repair water-filled potholes without any dehydration. To close potholes on roads, it is necessary to dewater potholes and apply tack coats, however Ecofix mixture can repair potholes even when it is filled with water, without the need for any tack coat. The road can also be opened for traffic immediately after repair. Since the Ecofix mixture is made using processed iron and steel slag and a specially customised binder, the repaired surface is better than regular roads, he opined.

14TH December : One last mention of Pisces, my current special sign. Browsing through my shelves the other day, I found a three-hundred year old book in which Piscean people were reputed to have 'a short Stature, a good large Face, palish Complexion, the Body fleshy or swelling, not very straight, but incurvating somewhat with the Head'. I'm not sure what that means. Or even if it's true!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Life goes on, and on. And on! Therefore, please don't be taken in by the thought that today's planetary aspects, reckless and imprudent as they can be, give you any sort of permission to let go or abandon course in mid-stream. Stick with it and you won't regret your determination.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Venus, your planetary ruler, now casts a rosy glow over home and family affairs. This is a very useful indication indeed, mainly if you're recovering from recent disagreements. More importantly, after today you'll be able to make up your own mind!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
It doesn't matter whether you are considering other people's proposals, or making your own. It's not a question of right or wrong, but of realising that once you have made a final decision you must stick with it. Once today has passed, there will be no going back.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You have a great deal to learn when it comes to money. There's no doubt about that. That doesn't mean, though, that anyone has the right to take advantage of you. Use this happy time to make a fresh start on a domestic matter or revitalise a family relationship.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Three cheers for mischievous Mercury, which endows you with all your bright ideas. Now is the moment to make up your mind and aim for solid, lasting agreements. You have around seven days to reconsider your plans, in spite of all current distractions!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
On a superficial level your chart talks of positive trends around travel, excursions and overseas contacts. The deeper perspective indicates that you have much to learn from tuning into your dreams. Strangely enough, a day-dream might show you the way forward in an unlikely personal goal.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Coming events at home will test your bargaining power, not to mention your social skills. The catch? Well, you need partners' support and approval! But how can you get it? Perhaps you could take a little trouble to find out exactly what they want. Listen carefully to every word!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Never again must you allow yourself to be pushed into a corner. For the second day running, the Moon is giving you the chance to mend fences and build bridges. And about time too, you may say! It might be difficult to offer an apology, but the effort should be worth it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You appear to be searching for something, but what? Any astrologer will tell you that the purpose of your journey through life is not to arrive, but to travel. Now, as ever, you will find that, having reached a goal, it soon ceases to satisfy.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Today's stars are all about love, affection and personal fulfilment. Where and how you will find these is another matter, but you should prepare the way by being completely open to whatever happens, putting aside your prejudices and personal preconceptions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
A great deal of good should come out of recent dramas. At the very least you should now have a much better idea of who your friends are. You may resolve family and domestic problems as soon as you have faced up to awkward issues involving such complicated matters as a possible cash crisis.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Just how much you owe other people will soon become apparent. Helpful changes at home over the weekend focus on relationships with reluctant people. Maybe you need to work harder at explaining to them just why it's in their interests to back you all the way.

Covid-19 scam: Soudha police register first FIR

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

VIDHANA Soudha police have registered the first FIR in the alleged irregularities in purchase of medical kits during the COVID-19 pandemic in the state. However, the 10-page FIR does not mention the names of any politicians. It just says some Karnataka people's representatives.

A complaint was filed in connection with the alleged irregularities in procurement of PPE kits and N95 masks on Friday.

Dr M Vishnu Prasad, chief accountant officer, Directorate of Medical Education, KR Road, filed the complaint against some Karnataka people's representatives, government officials, a doctor and two private firms in Yeshwanthpur Industrial Area and in Andheri, Mumbai.

The police have registered a case under the Karnataka Transparency in Public Procurement Act, 1999, Rules 2000, and under Sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), including criminal breach of trust (IPC 406), criminal breach of trust by public servants (IPC 409), dishonest misappropriation of property (IPC 403), and criminal conspiracy (IPC 120B).

The doctor named in the FIR is PG Girish, and N Muniraju from the Leprosy Hospital of the Health and Family Welfare Department on Magadi Road. The private firms named in the FIR are Laj Exports in Yeshwanthpur and Prudent Management Solutions in Andheri. The state government recently stated that a Special Investigation Team (SIT) will probe the scam.

Despite issuing purchase orders illegally and making payments, medical kits were not delivered. The FIR states that over Rs 167 crore has been misused.

Police await breakthrough in Atul Subhash suicide case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Marathahalli police, investigating the abetment of suicide case of 34-year-old techie Atul Subhash, are yet to make any breakthrough in the case. The accused fled before the police could reach them.

A team of the Bengaluru City Police had gone to Jaunpur in Uttar Pradesh in search of the accused and had pasted a notice on the closed door of the house belonging to the accused, instructing them to appear before the investigation officer for inquiry within three days.

Speaking to reporters on Friday, Bengaluru City Police Commissioner B Dayananda said that no arrests had been made yet. "Our team has reached Uttar Pradesh, and efforts are under way to track down the accused. The police will ensure justice is delivered to the victim's family," he said.

Speaking to TNIE, a senior police officer said multiple teams are investigating the case. The team led by the Marathahalli inspector is currently in Jaunpur, attempting to nab the accused. The accused's house remains locked, and the police have pasted a notice asking them to appear for questioning. The team is also trying to collect other details regarding the case.

Meanwhile, another team in the city is preparing to send available documents to the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) for verification. Since the death note is a digitally typed document, the police team will seize the computer and send it to the FSL for cyber forensic tests. They will also review the available video evidence to determine if there is any foul play involved, the officer added. Based on a complaint by Atul's brother, the police have registered an FIR against Atul's wife, Nikita Singhania; her mother, Nisha Singhania; her brother, Anurag Singhania; and her uncle, Sushil Singhania. They have been booked for abetment of suicide.

THE court said accused No 1, 2, 11, 12 and 14 were arrested on June 11 and accused No 6 and 7 on June 14. But the order sheet of the trial court shows no mention about the issuance of the memo of grounds of arrest to those accused immediately after their arrest. The witnesses, in their statements, have not stated anything about their presence at the time of arrest of the accused or about signing the memo of grounds of arrest. A serious doubt arises about the contention of the prosecution, the court added.

CONDITIONS	DIRECTIVE
The court imposed conditions that the accused should execute a personal bond for Rs 1 lakh each with two sureties for the like sum, they should appear before the trial court on all dates of hearing, should not directly or indirectly threaten or tamper with the witnesses, and should not involve in similar offences in future. Also, they should not leave the jurisdiction of the trial court without its permission until the case registered against them is disposed of.	The court directed the registrar general to send copies of the SC orders on the procedures to be followed by the trial courts and police to serve the memo of grounds of arrest on the accused immediately after their arrest, to the director general of police and the trial courts.

Darshan and Pavithra Gowda were arrested on June 11, following the alleged kidnap and murder of Renukaswamy, who worked in a medical store in Chitradurga, at Pattanagere in RR Nagar of Bengaluru on June 8 for allegedly sending derogatory and obscene messages to Pavithra in the name of Goutham KS from his social media account.

Darshan was sent to judicial custody on June 22 and was released on interim bail on October 30 on medical grounds. After getting interim bail, Darshan got admitted in a private hospital in Bengaluru for treatment for back pain.

The court noted that the petitioners do not have serious criminal antecedents. They have been in custody for six months and the prosecution, in all, cited 262 witnesses and 587 documents in 13 volumes along with the chargesheet. Therefore, the chances of the trial being completed in the near future is remote. If these factors are appreciated in the background of the judgments of the Supreme Court and the brief analysis of the material on record, the petitioners' prayer for regular bail is to be answered affirmatively, the court said.

WAQF ROW: OPPN TAKES ON GOVT, SEEKS WITHDRAWAL OF NOTICES

Previous BJP govt had issued highest number of notices, only 4,500 acres disputed: Cong

SUNIL PATIL @ Belagavi

THE ruling Congress government and opposition BJP sparred over the Waqf Board land controversy, during a debate in the assembly under Rule 69. "Waqf Board has been entered in land records of 1,11,874 acres in Karnataka, with or without serving notice to the cultivators. As promised, the chief minister should withdraw all Waqf notices and remove the Waqf Board name from column 11 and 9 of the records," Leader of Opposition R Ashoka said, during a debate under Rule 69 over the Waqf Board controversy.

Claiming that 'Waqf Board' had appeared on property records of farmers, temples, mutts and public properties, creating worry among the people, Ashoka said, "Of the 1,11,874 lakh acres of land declared as Waqf property in the state, 84,000 acres are declared as disputed land. A notice served to the ancient Lakshmi Temple in Srirangapatna had 'Waqf Board' in its records. Similarly, 120 acres of land around Avenue Road in Bengaluru comes under Waqf, so does forest land in Sirsi taluk. A government school where Sir M Visvesvaraya did his schooling is now Waqf property," he said.

MLA B Vijayendra said with Waqf Board entered in column 11 in the land records, farmers cannot take loans or sell their property. "This government is doing this just to appease the minorities. The government should stop this injustice against farmers and cancel the Waqf gazette passed in the year 1972," he said.

BELAGAVI WINTER SESSION 2024

"After the Indian Army and Indian Railways, Waqf Board has highest number of properties in the state. The DC bungalow, SP office and many other government properties are now Waqf property. A police station and police headquarters in Aland are Waqf properties. The original Anubhava Mantap has become Peerbasha Dargah... The government should immediately withdraw the notices and remove Waqf from land records and support the Waqf amendment law being brought by the Central government," Vijayapura MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal said.

Responding to the debate, ruling group MLA Rizwan Mohmmad said, "The opposition is misleading the entire state with false information. The BJP government had issued the highest notices in its previous term and said that 90 per cent of the land is acquired by Muslims. We welcomed their step and supported them but now the BJP is taking a U-turn after the Central government brought the Waqf Amendment Bill. The actual disputed Waqf land is only 4,500 acres, but BJP is unnecessarily creating an issue instead of resolving it and helping farmers."

'Don't pay heed to propaganda on reservation'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

CONGRESS leaders hailing from the SC Left grouping here on Friday advised members of their community not to pay attention to the alleged propaganda of a section of community leaders that the Chief Minister Siddaramaiah government would not implement the classification of SC quota, since it lacked empirical data.

They said the government will implement the internal quota soon after the Justice Nagmohan Das Commission submits its recommendations in two months' time. Until then, they clarified that the government will not initiate the recruitment process to fill over 35,000 vacancies.

Addressing a joint press conference, former Rajya Sabha member Dr L Hanumanthaiah alleged that some people are misleading the community by saying that empirical data is not available to implement internal reservation. "But the government can consider the 2011 census data and also the information gathered by the Justice AJ Sadashiva Commission. Moreover, statistics is also available in the Kantaraju Commission's caste census report. If the government accepts this report, it can also be used," he explained.

The government wants the commission to make the right decision to group homogenous communities such as Madigas, Samagars, Dohars, and Machhagars, who are identified with similar job profiles into one. The commission can collect other data, including backwardness, if available, from the stakeholders, he added.

Former KPCC working president Chandrappa alleged that false propaganda is being spread that the Bhovi and Lambani castes will be removed from the list of Scheduled Castes. Former minister H Anjaneya advised Madiga community members, who fought hard for decades, to be patient for two more months, claiming that the government is going to implement the internal reservation by then.

State govt will consider hiking remuneration for Panchayat prez, V-P

SUBHASHCHANDRA NS @ Belagavi

MINISTER for Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Priyank Kharge on Friday said the state government will consider enhancing the remuneration of panchayat presidents and vice-presidents, within three months after the Finance Department submits its report, and once the chief minister gives his nod.

Replying to a question by BJP members Dhananjaya Sirjee and DS Arun during the Question Hour in the Legislative Council on Friday, the minister said he has heard about the demands of panchayat president and vice-president associations, and has forwarded their requests to the finance department, and will soon take a decision in this regard.

"I have forwarded their requests to the state finance department, which will soon submit its report. I have told them not to pressurise for those demands, which might face legal hurdles, and those within the legal provision have been sent to the finance department, which has been told to submit a report within three months. Just give us time for three months, and we will enhance the remuneration," he told the Council.

On the demand for payment as per the Kerala model, Kharge said, "The Kerala model is not possible, considering the number of panchayats here. Kerala has about 1,000 GPs, while Karnataka has over 5,500 GPs. But the demand will be communicated to the CM," he said. When questioned about the transport and health benefits for the GPs, Kharge said there is no such proposal before the government.

The members had questioned whether the government will put an end to the demand of the GP presidents and vice-presidents seeking to enhance their remuneration. The government also stated that it will consider the demand of the members who sought to make payment to the women garbage collectors in gram panchayats under the NREGA scheme.

Gokarna takes centre of altercation in Assembly

The request for upgrading Gokarna Gram Panchayat to Town Panchayat led to an intense altercation between treasury and Opposition members in the Assembly on Friday.BJP member Dinakar Shetty, during the question hour, pointed out that thousands of devotees visit the religious place but it cannot provide basic amenities for the visiting people. So, the place should be upgraded to TP to address the problem. Municipal Administration Minister Rahim Khan said as per the population census of 2011, upgrading GP to TP would not be possible. While members insisted on upgrading considering the importance of the place, Urban Development Minister Bhairati Suresh said, around 50 proposals were pending before the department, and the government cannot decide selectively. Irked by this remark of the minister, Shetty said, that since Gokarna was famous for having sole Atmalinga in the country and tourists across the globe visit here, the government should facilitate facilities by upgrading the GP to TP.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Belagavi

AMID the controversy surrounding Mysore Urban Development Authority (MUDA) site allotment to CM Siddaramaiah's family, the state cabinet decided to introduce a new bill in the winter session in Belagavi to separate MUDA from the urban development department.

For a long time now, MUDA has been functioning under the urban development department and the authorities at the helm were controlling many of its affairs.

Sources said the government will table a bill to separate it, in the Legislative Assembly on Monday or Tuesday. A fierce debate is expected in the House when it is introduced. The cabinet is said to have expressed confidence that the bill will be passed with consensus in both Houses.

Secondly, the cabinet also informally discussed the contentious Panchamasali issue, but could not come to a consensus on it. When there were different opinions about the matter, CM Siddaramaiah decided to throw the ground open to everyone to present their views on it.

The cabinet didn't want to make a mess of the Panchamasali issue, and decided to resolve it as per the Constitution. Some ministers recalled the Maratha reservation issue which was badly and hastily handled by the Maharashtra government, and the cabinet decided to handle the issue carefully.

The cabinet also discussed financial allocation for the Saundatti Yallamma temple trust for its overall development. The temple attracts lakhs of devotees from across the country on a daily basis.

A discussion on gig workers was also held in the backdrop of a letter written by Congress leader Rahul Gandhi to the government to ensure their livelihood and safety. The cabinet resolved to consult Gandhi again to ascertain what should be the contours of the bill about gig workers, which will be introduced in the House by the government later.

2 BJP MLAs defy party decision to walk out

PTI @ Belagavi

TWO BJP MLAs ST Somashekhar and Shivaram Hebbar on Friday defied the party's decision and stay put in the Legislative Assembly, when all other saffron party legislators staged a walkout.

BJP members staged a walkout from the Assembly, as ruling Congress members allegedly tried to obstruct Leader of Opposition R Ashoka from raising the Waqf issue.

Some Congress MLAs led by PM Narendraswamy sought to raise some cases against BJP MLA N Munirathna.

Soon after the zero hour, Speaker UT Khader allowed Ashoka to raise the Waqf issue. At this point Narendraswamy, Nayana Motamma, and few others demanded that they be allowed to raise Munirathna issue, accusing him of making casteist slur. They said "it cannot be tolerated". Meanwhile, Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda also requested that he be allowed to make a statement on the rains and damages caused by it in the state.

Angered by this conduct of the ruling party, Ashoka along with all other BJP members staged a walkout making comments targeting the government.

Somashekhar remained seated in his seat when all other BJP MLAs walked out, later Hebbar too joined him.

Somashekhar and Hebbar are seen as "rebels" in the party for some time now. At the recent state BJP core committee meeting it was decided to take action against both Somashekhar and Hebbar, either by suspending them and moving for their disqualification as MLAs immediately, in consultation with the high command.

Row erupts over 'fake copy' of Anubhava Mantapa painting

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

A major controversy has erupted over the much-hyped 'Anubhava Mantapa' painting, which was unveiled four days ago at the newly inaugurated Suvarna Vidhana Soudha. Experts are now claiming that the artwork is a fake.

Originally commissioned by Vidhana Soudha and executed by Chitrakala Parishad, the painting is said to be a forgery and lacks the authenticity of an original work. Sources say the original painting was by renowned artist Khande Rao, but the one on display was painted without his consent, according to his son Satish Khande Rao.

Asked about the controversy, Chitrakala Parishad president BL Shankar shrugged off the concerns, stating that no one truly knows what the Anubhava Mantapa looked like eight or nine centuries ago, and that over the centuries, many artists have reimagined it in their own style. However, he promised to verify the matter.

T Prabhakar, vice-president of Chitrakala Parishad, defended the work. "This year alone, we've received nearly 3,500 applications for Chitra Santhe. Among them, many artists will try to depict the iconic woman with the lamp. Most of these works would appear similar. Can we call them copies?"

But the controversy deepened as Chitrakala Parishad sources revealed that the artists behind the controversial painting were Satish Rao from Chitrakala Parishad, Srikanth Hegde from Davanagere, Ashok U from Ken School, Veeresh and Mahesh. These sources admitted that while original commissioned paintings typically take around three months to complete, this rushed project was handed to the team in November with a deadline of just two weeks.

CM Siddaramaiah, DCM DK Shivakumar, Assembly Speaker UT Khader, Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti, LoP R Ashoka and others with the painting | FILE

Satish Rao, one of the painters involved, said, "I'm a portrait artist, and I was part of the team that worked on the painting. Vidhana Soudha officers approached us in November and gave us a tight deadline of two weeks. Normally, we need at least three months for a full, original painting, but we didn't have that luxury. We resorted to using images from the internet as references to meet the deadline. Once the authorities approved the design, we hastily completed the painting. While it's not an exact copy, the differences are noticeable if you compare the two. I can list out at least 15 differences. As an artist, I can assure you, we didn't copy it; we used it purely for inspiration."

The allegations of a fake painting have cast a shadow over its high-profile inauguration at Suvarna Vidhana Soudha, leaving the authenticity of the artwork in serious question.

THE Panchamasali community has the right to protest in support of its demands, but it should be peaceful. "No one should take law into their hands," he said. He appealed to the community members to exercise restraint.

Responding to the seer's remarks against him, Siddaramaiah said, "All are equal before the law, be it the CM or the seer. Article 14 guarantees the right to equality."

To a question, the chief minister said the government had sent three ministers, including HC Mahadevappa, to speak with the protesting Panchamasalis. He also reminded that the court had directed the agitators to protest peacefully without causing inconvenience to the people. He condemned the protesters' attempts to disturb peace during their agitation.

Reacting to BJP's allegations that the police targeted the protesters, Siddaramaiah displayed photographs of some protesters throwing stones, pushing barricades, and trying to enter the premises of Suvarna Vidhana Soudha in Belagavi. "Why were the swamijis sitting on the road? How were over 20 policemen injured if protesters did not throw stones at them? There is evidence to support their acts," he said.

TG HC grants bail to Allu Arjun

Directs him to furnish personal bond of ₹50k; Next hearing scheduled for December 21

TG NAIDU @Hyderabad

THE Telangana High Court granted actor Allu Arjun interim bail for four weeks, hours after he was arrested in connection with the death of a woman at the Sandhya Theatre in Hyderabad during the premiere of his movie Pushpa-2 on December 4. M Revathi was crushed to death when the crowd at the theatre surged forward towards Arjun, while her 8-year-old son sustained critical injuries.

As part of the bail conditions, Justice Juvvadi Sridevi directed Arjun to furnish a personal bond of ₹50,000 and to refrain from influencing witnesses. The actor was also instructed to file a fresh petition for regular bail in the trial court. The next hearing is scheduled for December 21, 2024.

The police, acting on the complaint lodged by Revathi's husband alleging negligence on the part of the event organizers and Arjun, arrested the actor from his Jubilee Hills residence on Friday afternoon. He was then taken to Gandhi Hospital for medical examination before being produced before the Nampally court, which sent him to 14 days remand.

Fortunately for Arjun, the high court's order granting him interim relief came almost at the same time as the Nampally court's order. Hearing the petition filed on Arjun's behalf, Justice Sridevi ruled that the Sections the actor was booked under — 105(B) and 118(1) read with 3(5) of the BNS — included culpable homicide and voluntarily causing grievous hurt, were not applicable in this case. The judge noted that Arjun could not be prima facie held responsible for the stampede, as he had attended the event after obtaining the requisite permissions.

She also made it clear that Arjun's fundamental right to life and liberty could not be overlooked. "As a citizen of this earth, he too has the right to life and liberty," However, Arjun would have to spend the night in Chanchalguda jail as the jail authorities did not receive the copy of the high court order till 10.30 pm. By the time the order copy was finally uploaded online, Arjun's advocates handed over a hard copy to the jail authorities.

Director General (Prisons) Soumya Mishra verified the physical copy of the HC order, as the Chanchalguda jail superintendent is on leave. However, the jail authorities found that there were mistakes in the order copy. Arjun will be released on Saturday once the rectified order copy was submitted to the jail authorities. Also, the surety amount of ₹50,000 was not submitted on Friday.

No role of govt, law taking its own course: TG CM

Hyderabad: Asserting that the law would take its own course, Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy on Friday made it clear that there was no role of the state government in the arrest of actor Allu Arjun for the death of M Revathi at the Sandhya Theatre. The chief minister's reaction came during a chit chat with the media in Parliament premises. He made it clear that the government would not support anyone, however famous he or she may be, when it comes to keeping the law. Revanth also said that the police will take action as per the law, in both the Pushpa-2 incident and in the Manchu Mohan Babu case. Later in the day, the chief minister told a television news channel that "Arjun didn't simply return to his home after watching the film (at Sandhya Theatre)". He said that Arjun greeted his fans at the theatre, waving to them from his vehicle.

'Ready to withdraw case against Allu Arjun'

Hyderabad: After 'Pushpa 2: The Rise' movie actor Allu Arjun was arrested on Friday for alleged involvement in a death at a stampede in Sandhya Theatre, the complainant and deceased Revathi's husband Bhaskar Magudampalli said that he was ready to withdraw the complaint. Addressing the media, he said that he along with his family he went to watch the movie because his son asked. Allu Arjun came there but there was no fault with him."If there is something, I am ready to withdraw the case. The police also did not inform me about Allu Arjun's arrest. I saw the news in the hospital", Bhaskar added. Meanwhile, Telangana High Court Advocate Vijay Gopal told TNIE that even the complainant wants to withdraw that case, where charges against the accused in non-compoundable offences cannot be withdrawn.

Madras HC junks order, Krishna to get MS award

R SIVAKUMAR @Chennai

BY setting aside an injunction order of a single judge on the Sangita Kalanidhi MS Subbulakshmi mirror award, instituted by The Hindu newspaper, a division bench of Madras High Court on Friday cleared the legal barriers to present the award to popular musician TM Krishna. The prestigious award, carrying a cash prize of Rs. 1 lakh, is set to be conferred on Krishna on January 1 at the Music Academy, according to a press release from the academy.

The division bench of Justices SS Sundar and P Dhanabal passed the orders on the appeals filed by the Music Academy, The Hindu Group (THG) Publishing Private Limited and The Hindu, daily against the single judge's injunction order granted on a civil suit filed by V Shrinivasan, grandson of Subbulakshmi."Conferment of an award by an Organisation or a Trust in memory of a legend to an individual is a recognition of his achievement and is not prohibited in law. In this case, except the recitals of the Will expressing her desire, no other source is alleged. Even though we are not agreeing, assuming that the desire of Dr MS Subbulakshmi was that no award shall be conferred on anyone in her name or in memory of her, how this is enforceable if conferment of award is not by way of exploiting her personality but by way of honouring or recognising her achievements in the field of music," the bench said.

Saying that the respondent cannot plead a 'legal injury' on the basis of a 'mere wish', the bench noted that unless there is a wrong, which is forbidden by law, he cannot have a cause of action to injunct another person from doing an act."

It noted that the court is unable to reject the contention of the appellants . Referring to the selection of Krishna for the award, the bench said it is the 'discretion' of the Music Academy and The Hindu to choose the recipient of the award 'in their wisdom' and the court normally will not judge the assessment.

Odisha murder: Hubby had shot pregnant wife

ENS @ Rourkela

THE 33-year-old pregnant woman of Sundargarh, alleged to have been murdered during a late night loot bid, was actually gunned down by her husband, Rourkela police said on Friday.

Police cracked the case by arresting victim, Shamyamayee Behera's husband Deben Behera (35) and his brother-in-law Satya Narayan Behera, also an assistant sub-inspector of police.

Shamyamayee was shot dead around 12.20 am in the intervening night of Wednesday and Thursday at her in-laws' house in Jhirdapali village in Bonai sub-division of Rourkela police district.

Police said Deben had concocted the story that armed robbers killed her during a loot attempt.

DIG (Western Range) Brijesh Kumar Rai said the husband, a panchayat extension officer, had an affair with another woman, which prompted him to murder his wife in cold blood and make it appear like an armed burglary.

Discrepancies in statements, timelines, contradictory forensic evidence and concealing of facts led the police to form a special team of additional SP and SDPO rank officers to ascertain the events and veracity of statements of Deben, his family members and neighbours, Rai said. Investigation finally came to the conclusion that it was a pre-meditated murder.

BB runner-up arrested for explosion in farm pond

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

BIGG Boss Kannada Season 10 runner-up Drone Pratap was arrested for detonating an explosive at a farm pond in Janakaloti village in Madhugiri taluk on Thursday.

Midigeshi police on Friday brought him to the spot at Sri Rayara Brindavana farms for the 'mahazar' where he conducted the illegal explosion 15 days ago. He was produced before court later in the evening and taken into police custody for three days for further investigation, sources informed TNIE. All those involved in the act, including the person who shot the video, will also be investigated, they added.

He threw a pack of 500gm of sodium into the pond, resulting in an upward blast of the water and videographed it. He uploaded the video on YouTube, sparking outrage from concerned people, including environmentalists.

A police team led by Midigeshi PSI PM Ammanagi traced Pratap MN (27), popularly known as Drone Pratap in Bengaluru, and arrested him. He was charged under Section 288 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) of 2023, which deals with the negligent handling of explosive substances. The section aims to ensure public safety by holding people accountable for their actions, besides Section 3 of the Explosive Substances Act of 1908, which deals with punishment for causing an explosion that could endanger life or property.

After the public outcry over the legality of conducting such explosions and safety of wildlife, Tumakuru SP KV Ashok initiated swift action by forming a police team to arrest the accused. Pratap had been promised a debut in the tinsel world as a protagonist in a Kannada movie. He originally hailed from Netkal village of Malavalli taluk in Mandya district.

Row over food at sammelana irks Kannada activists, organisations

K SHIVA KUMAR @Mysuru

A controversy has broken out over the food menu at the upcoming 87th Kannada Sahitya Sammelana to be held in Mandya. The Kannada Sahitya Parishat has included non-vegetarian food along with alcohol and smoking in the restricted items. This has come up against much opposition.

This has irked many Kannada activists, progressive organisations and others, who claim the organisers have no right to question their food habits or choices.

Kannada Rakshana Vedike President H D Jiaram submitted a memorandum appealing for non-vegetarian food to be served at the Sammelana.

Sensing trouble and criticism from various quarters, the Parishat removed non-vegetarian dishes from the menu, and imposed restrictions on the three-day Sammelana, to be held from December 20.

But the issue has not died down as Kannada activists and others have taken to the streets and staged protests for including non-vegetarian food among the restricted items.

They protested by consuming eggs in front of the Deputy Commissioner's office, and have even threatened to serve it at the venue. They also accused 'manuwadis' of hijacking the Sammelana.

Parishat president Mahesh Joshi said the food to be served will be decided by the food committee and is not the job of the Parishat. District minister N Chaluvarayaswamy has said he will hold talks with the striking organisations.

Although non-vegetarian food has not been served at any of the previous sammelanas, the Kannada Sahitya Sammelana food committee headed by Srirangapatna MLA Ramesha Bandisiddegowda had decided to serve both South Karnataka and North Karnataka dishes.

The All India Advocates' Federation has observed that the ban on non-vegetarian food is against the Constitution and has warned of a legal battle. Advocate BT Vishwanath said the sammelana is held with taxpayers' money and a total ban on non-vegetarian food is against the law when there is no such provision in the Constitution.

The Federation has appealed the Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to intervene and address the issue, and has extended moral support to the protesting organisations.

Royal Challengers Bengaluru launches unique sports training facility in Mundgod

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Mundgod

EIGHTEEN-year-old Akshay Siddi holds a dream in his heart. He has been practicing tirelessly to complete the 100-meter sprint within 11 seconds. This achievement will soon take him to the United Kingdom, where he will train under Olympic-level coaches. Akshay's parents, who are farmers, see this as a monumental accomplishment for their son as he chases his dream.

Thanks to the Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB), many Siddi boys and girls can now dream of excelling in sports. In collaboration with the GoSports Foundation, RCB has established a unique sports training facility in Mundgod, Uttara Kannada district. Mundgod, also known for its famous Tibetan monasteries, now houses a facility equipped with a hostel, kitchen, trainers, and an indoor gym. Around 25 boys and girls, selected from different parts of the district, are staying and receiving specialized sports training here.

The facility was inaugurated by Rajesh Menon, Vice President and Head of Royal Challengers Bengaluru. He encouraged the aspiring young athletes to dream big and work towards their goals for India's sporting progress.

"India has a diverse range of sporting talents. If you travel up north, you find wrestling. The northeastern states excel in boxing. Similarly, when we explored Karnataka, we decided to support the Siddi community by establishing this facility," Menon told The New Indian Express.

"RCB is providing national-level coaches who regularly visit Mundgod to train the children. In the coming days, we plan to organise sports camps, appoint dieticians, and bring in sports psychologists. These selected children from the Siddi community have exceptional athletic potential, and RCB is committed to nurturing their talent. Already, two sprinters from this facility are undergoing training in the UK," he added.

Kamala Siddi, a renowned athlete from the Siddi community and currently employed with Indian Railways, is mentoring the training team at Mundgod. Kamala has won several international medals for India and the Railways.

The Siddis are a native tribal community of Karnataka, descended from Southeast Africa. They were brought to India during the Portuguese era. Today, there are around 50,000 Siddis in India, with a majority residing in Uttara Kannada district.

Sixteen-year-old Sushmita Siddi, from Haliyal, has big dreams in track and field events. She is training here for the 100-meter and 200-meter dashes. Having practiced for five years, she recently won a state medal in the 4x100 relay. "I consider Gabrielle Thomas my inspiration, and I aspire to achieve great success in sports. The RCB facility provides us with the best training, and we are thrilled to be under the guidance of skilled coaches," she said.

GUKESH'S FEAT CEMENTS REIGN OF INDIA'S GOLDEN GENERATION IN CHESS

ON Thursday night in Singapore, D Gukesh grabbed the opportunity of his lifetime to become the youngest world chess champion. With 13 of the 14-match race done, the championship was on the verge of being decided by tie-breakers as the 32-year-old defending champion and his 18-year-old challenger were tied on points. That's when Ding Liren committed a blunder and Gukesh seized the opening. The win is a crowning glory for a new generation. When Viswanathan Anand's reign as world champion ended in 2013, there was a persistent question on who would be the next Vishy. A generation of wunderkinds answered that call many times over the last few years by breaking records and winning laurels. This is India's golden generation in chess and their reign is only getting started.

What put India on the ramp was the 2022 Olympiad held at Mahabalipuram, where India's men's and women's teams won bronze. Gukesh, then 16, and Nihal Sarin, another prodigious talent, also won individual gold. In 2023, R Praggnanandhaa made it to the final of the World Cup, while Vidit Gujrathi, Gukesh, Koneru Humpy and R Vaishali qualified for the Candidates Tournament. What augurs well for chess in the country is that these young talents have already garnered considerable experience. Gukesh not only prevailed at Candidates, but led the men's team to a sensational gold at the Olympiad earlier this year. The women's team also won gold—their rapid rise, too, shows no sign of tapering off soon. Arjun Erigaisi, who broke the 2800 FIDE rating barrier, could well challenge Gukesh at the next World Championship. The All India Chess Federation wants to ensure that this domination continues.

Chennai has always been the cradle of chess in the country. So it's poetic that one of its beloved is now the world champion, the second Indian on top after the trailblazing Vishy. It's not just the city's numerous academies, but also their capable coaches who have helped the sport grow. Timely patronage has come from the Tamil Nadu government—from hosting the Chess Olympiad in 2022 to staging the Chennai Grandmasters in short notice to help Gukesh qualify for the Candidates, they have done their bit too. With Chennai taking the lead, it's hopefully just a matter of time when the board game blossoms around the country.

ENSURE PROBE FAIRNESS, ALLAY SURVIVOR CONCERNS

AS the much-delayed trial in the Kerala actor's abduction-rape case entered its last phase, the survivor wrote to President Draupadi Murmu saying that no action has been taken against those behind the illegal access of the memory card containing the visuals of the assault on her in February 2017. She sought the president's intervention to ensure a proper investigation and suitable action. She pointed out that forensic tests had proven that the memory card had been accessed three times while it was in the custody of courts. The survivor said though she had approached the Kerala High Court and the Supreme Court for redress regarding this, she had been denied justice. The memory card containing eight video files is the crucial evidence in the case.

The letter is a desperate plea from the survivor to seek justice. While the trial may lead to punishment for the perpetrators and conspirators, the potential for misuse of the memory card's contents poses a grave threat to the dignity, privacy and rights of the survivor. An inquiry conducted by the Ernakulam district and sessions judge, on the direction of the Kerala High Court, had found that three persons—a former magistrate and two court employees—had accessed the card while it was in the custody of the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court, Angamaly, and the Principal and Sessions Judge, Ernakulam. However, this October the high court dismissed the survivor's petition for a fresh probe into the unauthorised access.

Since the survivor is an aggrieved party who could face more harm, it's absolutely necessary to allay her concerns and ensure fairness. A proper investigation can help preserve the integrity of the judicial process, besides helping identify the culprits and determining the extent of the transmission, if any, of the videos. The inquiry report indicated that the memory card was in the personal custody of some individuals, which requires further explanation. After the inquiry confirmed the unauthorised access, the survivor said in a social media post how it's "very scary" to know that her privacy was not safe even in a court. Her anguish is understandable. It's shocking enough that the card was accessed while it was in judicial custody; more shocking is the fact that no one has been held accountable till now.

QUICK TAKE

BETWEEN ASPIRATION & TRADITION

THERE was a time people would travel far to a guru to find the meaning of life, the universe and everything. Luckily, today we have Google. The tech leader's yearend publication of search trends gives us a chance to peek into the collective curiosity of the world. It's no surprise that, overall, Indians mostly looked up sports and politics. What's more fascinating are the recipes Indians searched for the most: on numbers 2-4 are mango pickle, dhaniya panjiri and ugadi pachadi. As is perhaps fitting for a country forever balancing the pulls of aspiration and tradition, sandwiching the three were 'porn star martini' and 'charnamrit'. Diversity is truly our unifying trait.

We must realise corporate tax cuts don't create jobs to the extent hoped for. With the supply side failing to spur growth, we need to stimulate demand

READ THE DANGER SIGNALS BLINKING ON ECONOMIC HORIZON

K M CHANDRASEKHAR

Former Cabinet Secretary and author of As Good as My Word: A Memoir

SOURAV ROY

MANY years ago, before Covid struck India, the Indian economy faced severe headwinds. It looked like a repeat of 2011-12, but with greater intensity. Growth fell continuously for eight quarters—except for a 0.08-percentage-point blip between December 2018 and March 2019. What was roaring at 8.2 percent in March 2018 had fallen to 3.1 percent in March 2020. It appeared to be a free fall.

The government responded with supply-side measures. There was a steep reduction in corporate tax rates at a cost of ₹1.5 lakh crore to the revenues of the state. The expectation was probably that more profit would automatically lead to more investment by the corporate sector and, consequently, more employment, higher incomes and greater consumption. The hope was for a beneficial cycle to strengthen the economy and create sustained growth.

But before the impact of these measures was felt, the pandemic hit. The supply-oriented stimulus measures had little effect; the RBI rescued the economy through some significant monetary policy measures.

Following the pandemic, there was a sudden burst of energy in the economy as consumers gave free expression to suppressed demand. The monetary policy continued to be easy, and as a result production could keep pace with the increasing demand. The second quarter of 2024-25 has, however, been depressing.

Manufacturing growth stood at just 2.2 percent, while export growth barely reached 2.8 percent. Last year, manufacturing was driving the economy. The GDP growth rate fell to 5.4 percent, the lowest in seven quarters and well below the 8.1 percent recorded a year ago. The first-half GDP growth rate is at 6.05 percent, below the RBI's optimistic projection of 7.2 percent for the year. Now, the expectation is that the economy will grow at 6-6.8 percent.

The macroeconomic figures, while they are not yet alarming, do point to a few specific danger signals. Growth of private final consumption expenditure is down to 6 percent in the second quarter of this financial year. The corresponding figure for government final consumption expenditure is 4.4 percent, up from minus 0.2 percent in the first quarter but considerably lower than the previous two years.

Growth of gross fixed capital formation, which had touched double figures in 2021-22 and 2022-23, was 7.5 percent in the first quarter of this financial year and 5.4 percent in the second. Consumer price inflation remains high at over 6 percent in October, leaving little room for RBI action on the monetary front. The most disquieting figure is in foreign trade, where growth rates were 2.8 percent in exports and (-)2.9 percent in imports.

India's economic policy hitherto has primarily been corporate-oriented. In late 2019, corporate tax rates were cut by 10 percent, with the government incurring a revenue loss of about ₹1.5 lakh crore, as stated by the Finance Minister. The insolvency code has primarily benefited the big and the rich, and banks have had to take enormous haircuts.

In January 2023, this newspaper said in an editorial: "Before the IBC came into force, average recoveries were 26 percent, and the time taken for resolution was four years. The banking and insolvency regulators, which once hailed the IBC as the biggest reform (bigger than GST) of our times, are now finding it difficult to explain the massive haircuts banks are taking to resolve cases through the IBC. With an average recovery rate of 30 percent, banks lose 70 percent of the debt given to these companies. This is not the pretty picture one had expected when IBC was implemented."

There has been considerable outward investment also. In the words of India Brand Equity Foundation, "In 2024-25 (April-September 2024), overseas direct investment stood at $8.9 billion. Of the total amount invested, $12.1 billion was in the form of issuance of a guarantee, $3.1 billion as a loan, and $5.8 billion infused in the form of equity. Additionally, Singapore was the top investment destination, with $2.8 billion. This was followed by the US accounting for $1.1 billion, and the Netherlands, with $809 million in investments. As of FY23, India has maintained its spot as the second-largest source of foreign direct investment projects for the UK. Indian businesses have invested in 118 projects in the UK and generated around 8,384 jobs, according to the High Commission of India in London."

India needs to rethink its economic policy and balance supply-oriented measures with demand-oriented ones, particularly since the global economic outlook is described as "underwhelming" by the IMF and, therefore, foreign trade may be sluggish. This would involve putting in place a set of measures that would stimulate demand.

The chief economic adviser recently pointed out that corporate profits must be shared with employees to generate demand. Speaking on December 5, he warned against "creeping informalisation" of the workforce. He called low wages and contractual hiring in the corporate sector "self-destructive" as it depresses demand for the goods and services they produce.

Both informalisation and low-wage growth and contractual hirings have happened while corporate profit has grown about four times in four years, with the profit-to-GDP hitting a 15-year high. The finance minister also expressed similar views when she said that the purchasing capacity of Indians is improving, but within India, you also have concerns of wages saturating. We are quite seized of these factors which might have a play on India's own consumption.

I am reminded of a research first published as a working paper in 2020 by David Hope and Julian Limberg of London School of Economics's International Inequalities Institute and King's College London. They analysed the economic effects of significant tax cuts for the rich across five decades in 18 wealthy OECD countries. They concluded that the rich got more prosperous, and there was no meaningful effect on unemployment or economic growth.

Hopefully, government decision-makers will look seriously at fiscal measures to introduce more balance in the economy, mainly because high inflation presently seems to preclude effective action on the monetary side.

LET'S STOP SPEAKING IN TONGUES ABOUT ENGLISH

MADHAVAN NARAYANAN

Senior journalist

REVERSE SWING

THERE is a funny line in the BBC comedy series, To the Manor Born, when a feudal aristocrat fallen on difficult days sells her country mansion to a Czech-born tycoon. Speaking of the responsibility that comes with the English heritage, she says: "Noblesse oblige. I bet you have not heard of that—it's English."

Getting your French mixed up with English is understandable for Britons—the French-speaking Normans after all ruled the Anglo-Saxons for more than 150 years. But the English language has been enriched by so many foreign influences that you can have a conversation in pukka English peppered with words borrowed from Hindi, Malayalam or Tamil. There are whole lexicons dedicated to Indian English terms—from Hobson Jobson published in 1886 to Hanklyn-Janklin of 1992.

These things come to mind a week after the news that the lone Kannada-medium student in a Mysuru engineering college has dropped out because he was the only one in his class and there was a shortage of course material. His family and friends advised him to switch to an English-medium course.

The English have gained a lot from India. It's said 'loot' was one of the earliest terms the Company-era Brits borrowed from India because that's what they were busy with. But if we are honest enough to separate colonial tyranny from the coincidental benefits of the Industrial Revolution and modern science, English makes a lot of sense.

Amid murmurs of protest from southern governments, Hindi is sneaking more and more into the lexicon of the Union government, which is set on increasing the Hindi-to-English ratio in lawmaking. The Indian Penal Code has been revised and renamed Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita; the Bharaitya Vayuyan Vidheyak aims to replace the Aircraft Act. We are told these are about replacing colonial era laws.

Even while minding the political symbolism of linguistic identity, we can say the English language remains a global currency—or, to mix metaphors and tongues, the lingua franca of national integration. The term 'lingua franca' itself is Italian in origin and refers to the Frankish language, which was once a common tongue among people from different regions.

Southern leaders can gladly protest against "Hindi imposition", but none is likely to oppose English. Because it's the language of global business, the lingua franca for science, technology, global travel and, therefore, lucrative careers—as our IT and business service industries have proven.

Yet, there are those who fashionably blame Thomas Babington Macaulay for introducing English as the main medium of instruction in India in the 1830s replacing Sanskrit and Arabic. He could be derided for

WIKIMEDIA COMMONS

> Mother tongues are more effective for deep learning and preserving culture. It's also true that Thomas Macaulay, who insisted on imposing English as the medium of instruction in India, knew little about the depth of eastern languages. But we can't avoid English as the lingua franca of global commerce foolishly proclaiming "a single shelf of a good European library was worth the whole native literature of India and Arabia" and for his desire of producing Indians who were "English in tastes, in opinions, in morals and in intellect". But we also need to admit that, because of the shared colonial history, English is today the language of opportunity.

Once upon a time, Urdu—Dakhni in the South—was a lingua franca to interact with aliens spouting Persian, Arabic and Turkish who were swirling around during Mughal rule. English could be seen as the new Urdu.

Recently, while marking the Indian language week starting December 4 as Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav, the Union education minister argued that the mother tongue lies at the core of deep learning to preserve folklore, tradition and collective wisdom. He advocated basic education for children in their mother tongues.

As someone who started education in Tamil medium, I agree. But equally, as someone who did much of his higher education in English and spoke Hindi in the neighbourhood, I have to emphasise the value of English. Southerners are happy to imbibe Hindi while enjoying Bollywood movies as well as travelling across India, but forcing it on them may not make sense as they may feel a loss of culture. Yet, for many young Tamilians, the American-English "bro" has quietly replaced the age-old "machaan".

India's official education policy laid out in 2020 emphasises a three-language formula with an emphasis on two Indian languages. Southern radicals worry this is a soft imposition of Hindi.

Even those speaking proud old languages with technical equivalents and texts in their mother tongues cannot escape English. On a visit to Stanford University a decade ago, I noticed a lot of Chinese students who had worked extra hard on their English. In Japan, English is a language of upward social mobility even though it was never ruled by English speakers.

Meanwhile, Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan have been quietly boosting the use of English in their state schools. Justifying the plans, the UP education minister said a few years ago: "Parents are queuing up for English medium schools."

Two Irrfan Khan starrers—Hindi Medium (2017) and its sequel Angrezi Medium (2020)—capture well the limitations of India's most spoken language and the world's most common language of power and privilege.

Any attempt to reverse-swing a language citing its colonial baggage is for good political rhetoric, but the final call is taken by everyday utility. Languages are like rivers. They become purer when they flow, and dearer when they help us translate the world's most easily understood language: money.

Adaptable India

Ref: FDI rebound signals new opportunities (Dec 13). IIndia's FDI rebound signals a growing confidence in its economic future, particularly in the 'new economy' sectors. However, this may be short-lived if global dynamics shift, especially with China's recovery and potential trade tensions from the US. India must remain adaptable, refining policies to sustain its edge.

Nehru today

Ref: Nehru: The man who refused to be Caesar (Dec 13). The lavish encomiums penned by the author about India's first prime minister are undeniable. Having the advantage of being the first prime minister of India, Jawaharlal Nehru had carved a niche for himself. But the opposition then adhered to the rules and regulations of parliament. Owing to changing times, it is debatable whether Nehru could have managed the political situations and pressures now.

Conflict culture

When comparing Nehru with our government today, one has to keep in mind the political climate of the present day and the culture of parliament members. The opposition today thinks the parliament is a place for violence. How can a government smoothly manage the orderly business of the House?

■ During Lok Sabha debate on 75 years of Constitution, TMC MP slams BJP for allegedly silencing critical voices ■ In response, Treasury bench erupts in huge protest

House adjourned twice during Constitution debate

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE proceedings of the Lok Sabha were adjourned twice after a row over Trinamool Congress MP Mahua Moitra's reference to the death of judge BH Loya "long before his time". As the Treasury benches erupted in protest, Union minister Kiren Rijiju accused Moitra of raising a matter settled by the Supreme Court, and warned of "appropriate parliamentary action".

Participating in the debate on 75 years of the Indian Constitution, Moitra made a passing remark on Loya's death as she attacked the ruling BJP for allegedly targeting institutions and Opposition leaders to silence critical voices.

The House was adjourned briefly twice due to the uproar over the matter.

"The Defence Minister, in a speech this morning, mentioned the courage of the late Justice HR Khanna to dissent in 1976. May I remind everyone, Justice HR Khanna lived for 32 years after 1976 under a largely Congress regime, long enough to write his autobiography, which the minister quoted from. Unlike poor Justice Loya, who is resting in peace long before his time," Moitra said.

Launching a blistering attack on the BJP-led NDA government, Moitra said the BJP failed all three constitutional tests—electoral accountability, institutional accountability by judiciary and watchdogs by media and civil society institutions.

"Public trust in elections must be restored by Election Commission. We have jokingly started calling the MCC (model code of conduct) as Modi Code of Conduct," she said.

I did not think the framers of the Constitution thought judges would rely on private conversations with God rather than Constitution while giving judgments
Mahua Moitra, TMC MP

Referring to statements by ex-CJI DY Chandrachud on Ram temple verdict, she said, "I did not think the framers of the Constitution thought judges would rely on private conversations with God rather than Constitution while giving judgments."

BJP MP Nishikant Dubey objected to her criticism of Chandrachud including receiving Prime Minister Modi at his residence during a festival.

Meanwhile, speaking during the debate, Samajwadi Party (SP) leader Akhilesh Yadav reiterated his demand for a nationwide caste census.

RS ruckus over no-trust motion against Chair, House adjourned

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

THE Rajya Sabha witnessed yet another day of pandemonium as the Opposition moved to seek the impeachment of Vice-President and Rajya Sabha Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar on Friday. The proceedings, already marred by the controversy over Adani bribery charges, were adjourned within the first hour after heated exchanges between the Opposition and treasury benches.

Amidst the chaos, Dhankhar, asserting his determination, said, "Kisan ka beta hoon, kamzori nahi dikhaunga (I am the son of a farmer, I will not go weak). I have tolerated enough". Expressed his dismay, Dhankhar remarked that the Opposition's constant targeting was not just an attack on his office but also on his identity. "Day in and day out, there is only a campaign against the Chairman. It's a campaign against the category to which I belong," he said.

Before adjourning the House until Monday, Dhankhar urged Leader of Opposition Mallikarjun Kharge and Leader of House JP Nadda to meet him in his chamber to resolve the deadlock. Kharge, visibly irritated, retorted, "How can I respect you when you are insulting me?"

QUOTA CONTINUES DUE TO BJP: JAGDAMBIKA PAL

BJP MP Jagdambika Pal on Friday said the SC/ST reservation in the country would have been discontinued if his party was not in power at the Centre. Participating in a two-day debate in Lok Sabha on the 'Glorious Journey of 75 Years of the Constitution of India', the Domariyaganj MP attacked opposition members for allegedly not fulfilling their Constitutional responsibility of attending the Parliament session. "When the Parliament session is going on, they are going to Hathras or Sambhal," Pal said. Leader of Opposition in LS Rahul Gandhi on Thursday met the family of a Dalit gangrape victim. Gandhi's sister Priyanka Gandhi Vadra had met the families of Sambhal violence victims in Delhi on Tuesday.

LOK SABHA PAYS TRIBUTE TO 2001 PARLIAMENT ATTACK MARTYRS

The Lok Sabha on Friday paid rich tributes to the security personnel who laid down their lives in foiling a terror attack on Parliament on December 13, 2001. Speaker Om Birla solemnly reiterated the commitment of the Lower House to fight terrorism and pledged to protect the unity, integrity and sovereignty of the nation. "This House and the entire nation solemnly remembers the unfortunate incident of December 13, 2001, when some terrorists attacked India's Parliament," Birla said. The Lok Sabha members stood in silence for a brief while as a mark of respect to the martyrs.

INDIAN FORCES PATROL ALL POINTS IN DEPSANG, EASTWARD LIMIT: EAM

External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said in Lok Sabha on Friday that security forces would be going to all patrolling points in Depsang in Ladakh and also to the eastward limit that are historically been India's patrolling limit. He said that the last of the disengagement agreement with China was related to Depsang and Demchok. The minister also said that India wants to have good relations with Pakistan that are free of terror, but if the neighbouring country does not show it is changing its past behaviour, there will be implications on the bilateral ties.

EFFORTS ON TO REDUCE MINORITIES TO SECOND-GRADE CITIZENS: AKHILESH

Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav alleged on Friday that efforts are underway to reduce the country's minorities, particularly Muslims, to "second-grade" citizens, and claimed that their rights and properties are being systematically eroded. Speaking in Lok Sabha during a debate on the Constitution, Yadav charged the government with fostering inequality and failing to uphold the constitutional rights of marginalised communities. "This Constitution is our armour, our security. It provides us strength whenever needed. The Constitution is the true guardian of the rights of the oppressed, neglected, suppressed, and deprived. For people like us and the weak in the country, especially for PDA (Pichdde, Dalit and Alpsankhyak), saving the Constitution is a matter of life and death," he said.

Shortage of IAS, IPS officers slows decision-making process

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

THE country's administrative and police services have been gripped by a significant shortage of civil servants, official data showed.

As per the data shared in the Rajya Sabha by Minister of State for Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions, Jitendra Singh, there are 1,316 vacancies in the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) and 586 in the Indian Police Service (IPS).

A senior IAS officer, who wished anonymity, acknowledged that the shortages are causing a strain in the administrative system. "The shortage of officers has resulted in additional responsibilities for many, with some handling multiple departments. This is affecting the pace of administrative decision-making and the execution of development schemes," the officer said.

According to the official data, the sanctioned strength of IAS officers across India is 6,858. However, only 5,542 officers were in service as of January 1, 2024. Among the vacancies, 794 posts are to be filled up through direct recruitments, while 522 through promotions.

Similarly, in the IPS, the sanctioned strength is 5,055, while only 4,469 officers are currently in service. Of this, 209 vacancies are for direct recruits, and 377 to be filled up through promotions.

The Indian Forest Service (IFS) too faces similar challenges, with 1,042 vacancies. Of these, 503 posts are to be filled through direct recruitments and 539 through promotions.

The recruitment data from the 2022 civil services examination shows that 75 IAS officers were recruited that year — 45 from the Other Backward Castes category, 29 from the Scheduled Castes, 13 from the Scheduled Tribes, and 75 from the general category.

Similarly, 83 general, 53 OBC, 31 SC, and 13 ST candidates were inducted into the IPS. For the IFS, the appointments included 43 general, 51 OBC, 22 SC, and 11 ST officers in 2024.

Regionally, the highest number of IAS vacancies is in the AGMUT cadre, covering Arunachal Pradesh, Goa, Mizoram, Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Chandigarh, Daman and Diu, and Lakshadweep. With 130 vacancies, AGMUT leads the list, followed by Bihar (115 vacancies), Maharashtra (89), Kerala (79), Uttar Pradesh (78).

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

NEARLY 42,000 Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs) and Assam Rifles personnel have availed of 100-day leaves between 2020 and October 2024, data compiled by the Union Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has revealed.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah had announced the 100-day leave policy for the nearly 9.5 lakh personnel of the CAPFs to help them live with their families more with an aim to reduce suicides and fratricides in the forces.

According to the data presented in Parliament earlier this week, CRPF saw 2,245 personnel taking 100 days of leave in the period under review. The BSF, with the largest number of jawans in terms of availing 100 days of leave, recorded the highest number of leave requests with 21,733 personnel taking extended leave. The BSF saw a sharp decline in 2021 when 3,978 personnel availed of the 100-day leave, which further fell to 3,295.

As many as 1,472 ITBP personnel availed of the leave over the four years and 6,142 of Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB). The CISF has seen 8,838 personnel take leave, with 2023 being the high point at 2,234 leave days.

Assam Rifles, which operates along the volatile Indo-Myanmar border and is deployed in Manipur as well, has seen 2,367 leave days but marked a drastic drop in 2024, as only 91 personnel could avail of 100 days' leave. In all, 42,797 CAPFs and AR personnel exhausted 100 days of leave between 2020 and 2024.

The Parliamentary Standing Committee on Home Affairs has raised the matter in a meeting, noting that 75 days of leave are now provided to the personnel who are posted in the field, and there is a proposal to increase it to 100 days.

It noted that he expressed his views in public on political matters, in violation of the Restatement of Values of Judicial Life, 1997.

91 dists face high drought risks, 51 flood: Report

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

INDIA'S 91 districts face high risks of drought, 51 districts are at high flood risks and 11 face "very high" risks of both, a new report released by the department of science and technology says, emphasising the need for immediate interventions to address challenges posed by climate change.

The report, titled 'District-Level Climate Risk Assessment for India: Mapping Flood and Drought Risks Using IPCC Framework,' has mapped India's districts to assess climate vulnerability. "The profiling of hazard-specific risks of districts will enable state governments to prepare proactively and allocate resources, staff and design programmes, fostering resilience in districts most affected by floods and droughts," the report says.

Besides DST, the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation funded the study to address climate change challenges. The study was carried out by the Indian Institute of Technology, Guwahati in collaboration with IIT Mandi and the Centre for Study of Science, Technology and Policy (CSTEP), Bengaluru.

According to the study, about 85% of the districts of Assam, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal, Gujarat, Odisha, and Jammu and Kashmir are in the "very high" flood risk category. Fifty-one districts face "very high" flood risk and 118 come under 'high" risk category.

More than 85% of the districts in the 'very high' drought risk category belong to Bihar, Assam, Jharkhand, Odisha, Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, West Bengal, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Chhattisgarh, Kerala, Uttarakhand, and Haryana. Ninety-one districts facing 'very high' drought risk, and 188 districts facing 'high' drought risk predominantly belong to Bihar, Jharkhand, Assam, Odisha and Maharashtra.

Eleven districts facing both 'very high' flood and drought risks include Patna (Bihar); Alappuzha (Kerala); Charaideo, Dibrugarh, Sibsagar, South Salmara-Mankachar and Golaghat (Assam); Kendrapara (Odisha); and Murshidabad, Nadia, and Uttar Dinajpur (West Bengal).

"Now challenge is to translate these findings into on-ground actions as essentials, and insights must reach every stakeholder at national and state levels," said Anita Gupta, head of scientific division, DST.

PM launches projects worth ₹5.5K cr during his Prayagraj visit ahead of religious congregation

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

DESCRIBING the Mahakumbh-2025 as a "Maha yagna" of unity, PM Narendra Modi on Friday extended his best wishes for the religious congregation, saying it would take the country's cultural and spiritual identity to newer heights.

Addressing a gathering on the mela premises in Paraygaraj, he said the Mahakumbh would not only provide social strength but economic empowerment as well. He described Mahakumbh as spectacle of unity where inequality in all shapes and forms meet their end. He said the congregation was so grand that it would be discussed across the globe.

The Mahakumbh-2025 will take off with first 'snan' (bathing) on the day of 'Paush Poornima', which will fall on January 13. It will culminate with 'royal bathing' in Maha Shivratri on February 26 at Prayagraj. The Mahakumbh is organised every 12 years.

The PM, who inaugurated and laid foundation of development projects worth ₹5,500 crore during his Prayagraj visit, said that crores of devotees and pilgrims from across the country and abroad would assemble in the Sangam city for the Mahakumbh-2025 with their own beliefs, faiths and thoughts. He added that they would unite on the banks of Sangam (the confluence of the Ganga, Yamuna and the mythical Saraswati), presenting a unique representation of the country before the world.

"Mahakumbh is a divine festival of our faith, spirituality and culture. I feel fortunate to be on the holy land of Prayagraj to review its preparations and inaugurate various development works," the PM said. "It is the blessings of Prayagraj and its people that I have had the honour of visiting here time and again. I had come and taken a dip in the holy waters of Sangam in 2019," he added.

Highlighting the significance of Mahakumbh-2025 and Prayagraj as mentioned in ancient Hindu religious texts, Modi said that the differences of castes and sects disappear at the Mahakumbh.

Ahead of the launch of projects, the PM performed a ceremonial puja and darshan at the Sangam. He also undertook a river cruise. Uttar Pradesh Governor Anandiben Patel and Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath were present with the PM at the puja.

The projects worth ₹5,500 crore are meant to improve the city's infrastructure and amenities for the Mahakumbh. The projects are designed to enhance infrastructure, connectivity, and public amenities in the region, catering to the large influx of devotees expected during Mahakumbh.

The projects included several rail and road developments, such as 10 new Road Over Bridges, flyovers, permanent ghats, and riverfront roads.

In line with the vision for a "Swachh and Nirmal Ganga," the PM also launched initiatives focused on intercepting, diverting, and treating drains that currently lead untreated water into the Ganga, thereby ensuring zero untreated discharge into the sacred river.

As part of the temple corridor projects, Modi unveiled the Bharadwaj Ashram Corridor, Shringverpur Dham Corridor, Akshayvat Corridor, and Hanuman Mandir Corridor.

Modi also introduced the AI-based chatbot, designed to offer real-time updates and assistance to pilgrims during the Mahakumbh.

Chirag says will focus more on Bihar, contest assembly polls in 2030

RAMASHANKAR @Patna

UNION minister and LJP (Ram Vilas) chief Chirag Paswan on Friday said he will focus more on Bihar in the days to come and also contest assembly elections in 2030 to be elected as a member of the House.

Paswan said he joined politics with an objective to work for the betterment of Bihar. "It was part of my plans that I emphasised on the party's slogan of 'Bihar First, Bihari First' during the 2020 assembly elections," he said during an interaction at a programme organised by a private news channel. "I would like to see myself as a member of Bihar Assembly in 2030. I see myself more familiar with state politics," he added.

Political analysts said Paswan has refrained from contesting the 2025 assembly elections as the NDA, of which his party is a partner, has already declared to contest the polls under the leadership of Chief Minister Nitish Kumar. "In such circumstances, Chirag Paswan will look for his space in state politics in 2030," said a political analyst.

Responding to a query, Paswan ruled out any truck with RJD leader Tejashwi Prasad Yadav in future. "I don't believe in pressure politics. When the NDA is doing well, the question of breaking ties doesn't arise," he said, affirming his loyalty to PM Narendra Modi. Paswan said that if things move on expected lines, the NDA will win 225 seats in the 2025 assembly elections in the state.

Addressing questions on caste politics, the Hajipur MP said he gave the 'Bihar First, Bihari First' slogan to break the chains of caste politics in Bihar. He said he is a big supporter of positive politics, adding that it was his "positive thinking" that helped him regain strength over the years. Paswan slammed the Congress and other INDIA bloc allies over the accusations of EVM-rigging, questioning the seats where the opposition candidates won in the polls.

No dearth of Central grants, yet jobs in Gujarat take a hit: Data

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @Ahmedabad

JOB creation under the Prime Minister's Employment Generation Scheme (PMEGS) has been declining, despite increased subsidies and average central government grants to Gujarat over the past three years, the Rajya Sabha was recently informed.

In the pandemic-affected year of 2021-22, the scheme created 33,144 jobs in the state, which dropped to just 24,000 in 2023-24, raising concerns over the effectiveness of the programme in sustaining employment growth.

According to the Centre, Gujarat received a subsidy of ₹28,704.84 lakh under the PMEGS during 2021-22. This subsidy supported 4,143 units and created employment opportunities for approximately 33,144 youths, the Ministry of Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises stated.

In 2022-23, the subsidy allocation dropped to ₹24,182.62 lakh, benefiting 3,071 units and generating jobs for about 24,568 individuals. The reduction in subsidy and employment coincided with efforts to stabilise the post-pandemic economy, reflecting a shift in the scheme's outreach and impact.

However, despite a subsidy increase to ₹32,124.58 lakh in 2023-24, the number of assisted units further decreased to 3,000, with only 24,000 jobs created.

This decline in employment generation, even with higher subsidies, raises questions about the scheme's efficiency.

The Centre said that the scheme aims to boost project funding and expand inclusivity. It has raised the maximum project cost to ₹50 lakh for the manufacturing sector and ₹20 lakh for the service sector, doubling the earlier limits.

In a significant move toward inclusivity, the scheme now includes applicants from aspirational districts and transgender individuals under the special category, making them eligible for higher subsidies.

Encouragingly, the unemployment rate dropped sharply to 2.3% in 2023-24, signaling a potential recovery in urban employment.

4 back-to-back suicides in 24 hrs rock MP; BJP & Cong leaders among dead

ANURAAG SINGH @Bhopal

ALLEGED suicides involving a couple and two political leaders — a BJP member and the other from Congress — have shaken Madhya Pradesh in the past 24 hours.

The suicide by the couple whose children had reportedly gifted their piggy bank to Rahul Gandhi during his Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra in 2022 raised the political temperature in the state on Friday.

Eight days after the ED team searched his premises in connection with a ₹6 crore loan fraud case, businessman Manoj Parmar and his wife Neha Parmar were found hanging in their house in Ashta town of central MP's Sehore district on Friday morning.

The couple has left behind three kids, including an 18-year-old daughter and two sons aged 16 and 13. The police have recovered a five-page letter addressed to 17 entities, spanning from the President and the PM to the LoP in the Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi and MP CM Dr Mohan Yadav.

Couple found dead

Eight days after the ED searched his premises in connection with a ₹6 crore loan fraud case, businessman Manoj Parmar and his wife Neha Parmar were found hanging in their house in Ashta town of central MP's Sehore district. The couple has left behind three kids, including an 18-year-old daughter and two sons.

The letter mentions harassment by the ED, prompting the businessman to end his life with his wife. It also mentions pressure to disassociate with the Congress and join the BJP.

DIG-Bhopal Rural OP Tripathi said, "Prima facie, it's a matter of suicide by the couple. The police have seized a letter addressed to various entities, and investigations are underway."

The opposition Congress went on the offensive against the ruling BJP and the government in the matter. Meanwhile, in Delhi, former MP CM and current Rajya Sabha member Digvijaya Singh told journalists, "Parmar told me on Wednesday that since he was supporting the Congress, the ED was raiding his premises."

BJP MP and spokesperson Narendra Saluja said that in 2017, a case of cheating and fraud was registered against Parmar in connection with bank loan fraud. The local court awarded him seven years imprisonment. The CBI booked Parmar in the case, and that probe is still underway.

Meanwhile, two more high-profile suicides were reported in the state over the last 24 hours. A septuagenarian BJP leader, Kanhiram Raghuvanshi, believed to be under acute depression, shot himself dead with his licensed gun at his house in the Ganesh Nagar area of Chhindwara city. Another aged politician, the opposition Congress's Gwalior City unit's acting chief Amar Singh Mahor, allegedly hanged himself to death inside his house in the Madhoganj area of Gwalior.

Snow in higher reaches of J&K beckons tourists

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

THE tourist resorts of Gulmarg, Sonamarg, Pahalgam and Sinthan Top in the Valley are currently blanketed in snow after the recent snowfall, leading to a vibrant atmosphere filled with tourists. Authorities are hopeful of an all-time high tourist inflow into the Valley in 2024, surpassing last year's 2.3 million visitors.

Tour operator Sajjad Ahmed Kralyari said the tourist inflow increased in December after the snowfall in the upper reaches, including tourist destinations in Gulmarg, Sonamarg, Pahalgam, and Sinthan Top.

He said the snowfall is attracting and luring many tourists to Kashmir who want to enjoy tourism here. "We are receiving many queries from travellers intending to visit Kashmir to see and enjoy snowfall," Sajjad said.

Gulmarg is the most sought-after tourist destination as it is known for its snow-covered slopes during the winter. "It is a wonderland. It's my first visit to Gulmarg and I am having a memorable experience," said Ajit Kumar, a tourist from Maharashtra.

He said once he returns home, he would strongly recommend that people visit the Valley for a lifetime experience. Domestic tourists and foreign travellers are visiting Kashmir for winter tourism.

"Every day, we have a good number of foreign tourist arrivals. About 200-500 foreign tourists visit Kashmir daily despite the snowfall delay," Director Tourism Kashmir, Raja Yaqoob said. Buoyed by the foreign tourist arrivals, he said, "We will have the highest ever foreign tourist arrival in the Valley this year." Yaqoob said they would hold winter festivals in both Gulmarg and Pahalgam, where national-level artists would perform.

A hotelier in Gulmarg said, "Last year, many tourists returned disappointed from Gulmarg because of the lack of snowfall. But this year, there have been some spells of snowfall, and the weather department has predicted more snow. We are hopeful that a record number of tourists will visit picturesque Gulmarg this winter," he said.

The Director of Tourism said that owing to the trend of tourist arrivals in the Valley, they expect an all-time high tourist inflow in 2024.

Satellite phones for trekkers in J&K mountains

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

THE Jammu and Kashmir authorities would soon permit use of satellite phones in Valley's high-altitude ridges to ensure trekkers stay connected and avoid any untoward incident in the mountains.

Director Tourism Kashmir Raja Yaqoob Farooq said the decision is at an advanced stage of discussion between the Ministry of Tourism and MHA.

The use of satellite phones would ensure connectivity in high mountain ranges in the Valley, where there is no mobile connectivity. Trekking is an important part of Kashmir tourism and the authorities have identified 75 routes for trekking in the Valley.

"The Kashmir Great Lakes (trek) is our most sought after track. Then there are some treks in Gulmarg and Tarsar Marsar track. We are trying to map these," Yaqoob said.

MASSIVE RUSSIAN AERIAL ATTACK ON UKRAINE

A building burns after it was hit by a Russian drone in Chernihiv, Ukraine | AP

KYIV

RUSSIA on Friday launched a massive aerial attack against Ukraine, involving dozens of cruise missiles and drones, the latest such strike aimed at crippling the country's electricity system.

The Russian military targeted the Ukrainian power grid, energy minister Herman Halushchenko wrote on his Facebook page. "The enemy continues its terror," he said.

Halushchenko said energy workers do everything necessary to "minimise negative consequences for the energy system," promising to release more details on damages once the security situation allows it.

Ukraine's air force reported multiple strike drones launched at Ukraine overnight followed by swarms of cruise missiles in the country's air space. It said Russia also used air-launched ballistic Kinzhal missiles against Ukraine's western regions. Friday's attack is the latest in a series of such raids that has heightened fears that the Kremlin aims to destroy the country's power generation capacity as the winter sets in.

Since launching its invasion in February 2022, Russia has relentlessly pummelled Ukraine's electricity system, resulting in repeated shutdowns of critical heating and drinking water supplies during the bitter winter months in an apparent attempt to break Ukrainian spirits and resolve. Moscow has declared that the attacks are aimed at hobbling Ukraine's defence industry, thwarting the production of missiles, drones, armoured vehicles and artillery, among other weapons.

A similar massive attack on November 28 involved about 200 missiles and drones and left more than a million households without power until emergency teams restored supplies.

Ukrainian officials have warned that Russia is stockpiling cruise and ballistic missiles for more attacks.

On November 21, Russia for the first time used an intermediate range hypersonic ballistic missile to strike an industrial plant in the city of Dnipro, in eastern Ukraine. Russian President Vladimir Putin described the attack with the Oreshnik missile as retaliation for Ukrainian strikes on Russian territory with longer-range Western weapons. He declared that more attacks with the new weapon could follow.

The Pentagon warned Wednesday that Russia could use its new missile against Ukraine again soon. AP

ASIA MATTERS

Teenager stabbed by classmate

A 14-year-old has been arrested on charges alleging that he stabbed a Thai-Australian schoolmate to death in a fight after having an ongoing feud, police in Thailand said Friday. The suspect told investigators he and the victim harboured a mutual dislike from school and they agreed via the Line messaging app to meet outside a grocery store near their homes on Tuesday. The suspect appeared to have lost the fight because the other boy was bigger, but the suspect rushed to his car to grab a cooking knife and stabbed the victim in the back.

death row convict gets rare relief

Mother of two Mary Jane Veloso, 39, was arrested and sentenced to death in 2010 after the suitcase she was carrying was found to be lined with 2.6 kilograms of heroin. Both she and her supporters claim she was duped by an international drug syndicate, and in 2015, she narrowly escaped execution after her suspected recruiter was arrested. Last week, Indonesia's senior law and human rights minister Yusril Ihza Mahendra said a "practical arrangement" had been signed for her repatriation. He said her transfer could happen "around December 20" before Christmas.

'24 IPO mkt slated for 'Vishal' closing

Mobikwik issue booked more than 119 times, Vishal Mega Mart subscribed little over 27 times

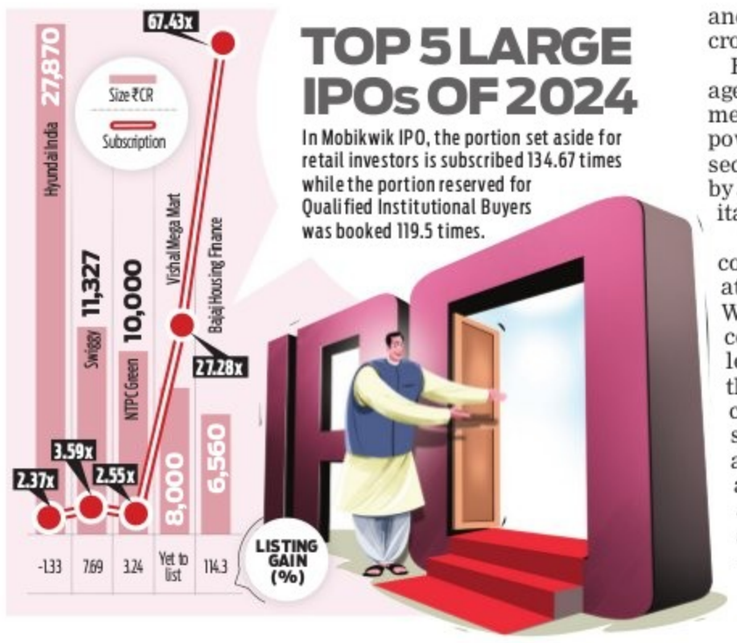
ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

THE primary market is closing calendar year 2024 with a bang as two of the most awaited initial public offerings (IPOs) garnered a blockbuster response from investors.

While the initial share sale of fintech firm Mobikwik was subscribed more than 119 times, the offering of supermart chain Vishal Mega Mart, which launched a mega issue of ₹8,000 crore, was subscribed little over 27 times.

In the Mobikwik IPO, the portion set aside for retail investors is subscribed 134.67 times while the portion reserved for Qualified Institutional Buyers (QIB) was booked 119.50 times. The quota reserved for Non Institutional Investors (NII) was booked 108.95 times. For Vishal's IPO, QIB's led the charge as this category's quota was booked nearly 81 times.

The enthusiasm shown by investors for the two IPOs is in line with interest shown by them for other IPOs throughout the year. As per BSE data, the IPO market saw a total of 76 listings (as of December 13, 2024). While 58 IPOs delivered positive listing gains, 18 IPOs experienced negative listing day returns.



Recent data shared by Prime Database stated that 75 Indian companies raised over ₹1.5 lakh crore through mainboard IPOs. This is a big jump given 57 IPOs had raised ₹49,435 crore in 2023 and 40 IPOs has raised ₹59,301 crore in 2022.

Himani Shah, Co-Fund Manager, Alchemy Capital Management said that companies in the power, energy, and industrial sectors performed well, driven by anticipated increases in capital expenditures.

"Additionally, many of these companies offered some valuation upside for investors. When company valuations account for potential upside, leaving no room for investors, they often get discounted or corrected...2025 is likely to see strong IPOs in industrials, capital goods, and renewable energy sectors, as these are driving India's growth story," Added Shah. The biggest IPO of this year and the biggest so far in India's capital history was of Hyundai Motor India Ltd. The ₹27,870 crore IPO was subscribed 2.37x and listed at a discount of 1.33%. The other big IPOs were launched by Swiggy, NTPC Green and Bajaj Housing Finance.

Analysts stated that investors saw a value-picking opportunity after November CPI inflation moderated to 5.48% , down from 6.21% in October.

At close, the Sensex was at 82,133.12, up 843.16 points, or 1.04%. The Nifty50 settled at 24,768.30, up 219.60 points, or 0.89%. In the broader market, Nifty Midcap 100 and Nifty Smallcap 100 closed with minor cuts.

"Markets quickly bounced back from its weak opening and surged ahead in intra-day trades as moderating inflation and uptick in IIP growth numbers enthused investors to resort to value buying in banking, IT and telecom stocks," said Prashanth Tapse, Senior VP (Research), Mehta Equities. Out of 50 constituents of Nifty50, 41 advanced on Friday. Bharti Airtel, ITC, Kotak Mahindra Bank, HUL, and UltraTech Cement gained between 2 -4.4%.

Ajit Mishra – SVP of Research, Religare Broking said that Nifty's strong close near the day's high suggests the potential for further upside, with confirmation expected above the 24,800 level

"We maintain a positive outlook on the IT and banking sectors, recommending selective picks from others. Participants should align their strategies accordingly, prioritizing risk management to navigate market volatility effectively," added Mishra.

BUSINESS SENTIMENT IMPROVED: BOJ SURVEY

A quarterly survey by the Bank of Japan (BOJ) shows business sentiment has improved slightly, especially in major heavy industries such as automaking, fossil fuels and machinery, while services industries were less upbeat. The survey released on Friday, called the tankan, might influence the BOJ's decision on whether to raise its benchmark interest rate next week. It shows the difference between companies saying they are optimistic about business conditions and those that are pessimistic. The survey's outcome undermined expectations for a rate hike and the yen weakened, with the US dollar trading at 152.90 yen on Friday, near its highest level in two weeks. Meanwhile, the benchmark Nikkei 225 stock index fell over 1%. The economy grew at a revised 1.2% annual pace in last quarter, helped by sustained consumer spending.

CHINA

PLEDGES MORE DEBT, RATE CUTS ON US TARIFF THREATS

China has pledged to increase the budget deficit, issue more debt and loosen monetary policy to maintain a stable economic growth rate as it girds for more trade tensions with the US as Donald Trump returns to the White House. The remarks came in a state media readout of an annual agenda-setting meeting of China's top leaders, known as the Central Economic Work Conference (CEWC), held on December 11-12. This year's meeting came with the world's second-largest economy stuttering due to a severe property market crisis, high local government debt and weak domestic demand. Exports, one of the few bright spots, face the threat of higher US tariffs. A separate readout from state news agency Xinhua, watched by financial markets for references to the yuan currency, kept a pledge to "maintain the basic stability of the exchange rate at a reasonable and balanced level".

THAILAND

DIGITAL ECONOMY EXPANDS 5.7% IN 2024

Thailand's digital economy is projected to grow by 5.7% this year, digital economy and society (DES) minister Prasert Chanthararuangthong announced on Friday. He attributed this growth to the effective implementation of digital economy policies by the governments of both former prime minister Srettha Thavisin and his successor, Paetongtarn Shinawatra. Prasert said the growth in Thailand's digital economy was measured using chained volume measures (CVM), which showed growth that was more than two-fold higher than the overall 2.2% GDP growth as projected by the National Economy and Society Development Council (NESDC).CVM is a way of measuring economic growth that adjusts for changes in prices over time and is considered to be more accurate than traditional measures. Prasert noted that exports of digital goods and services are projected to grow by 17.2%.

Sebi proposes framework to enable retail investors to participate in algo trading

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

MARKET regulator Sebi has proposed empanelment and registration of algo providers and traders with the exchanges and also has asked tech-savvy retail investors to register the algos they have developed with the exchanges through their brokers.

In a consultation paper released on Friday, the regulator has proposed a framework to govern algorithmic trading by retail investors for ease of use with proper checks and balances. The draft circular proposing new norms are open for public feedback until January 3. The facility of algo trading shall be provided by a broker only after obtaining permission from the exchanges for each algo, the draft paper said.

"The evolving nature of algo trading, with increasing demand for algo trading by retail investors, has necessitated a review and refinement of regulatory framework so retail investors are able to participate with proper checks and balances. This is aimed at safeguarding investor interest and integrity of the market," said the Sebi circular.

Algo trading is a method of executing trade orders by providing predefined set of rules to a computer programme. When predefined conditions are met, orders are placed at a speed and frequency impossible for human traders to execute. Though like other trading tool, algo-trading is not flawless, it is perhaps most effective way to trade large volumes of securities.

No plans of 35% slab yet under GST: MoS Finance

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

THERE are no plans yet to have a 35% tax slab under the goods and services tax (GST), and any decision on this would be taken together in consultation with GST Council, minister of state for finance Pankaj Chaudhary told reporters here on Friday.

Chaudhary was responding to a question if the government is considering the recommendation made by the Group of Ministers (GoM) on rate rationalisation. The GoM has recommended a new tax slab of 35% for luxury and 'sin' goods like tobacco, cigarettes, aerated drinks, etc.

The MoS finance told reporters that the GST Council would take the final decision and the same will be in consultation with the states, who are also members of the Council.

The compensation cess levied under GST would cease to exist after March 2026 and the same will be merged with the 28% tax slab to arrive at a new rate that will be levied on demerit goods, which currently attracts compensation cess. For example, Gutkha containing tobacco attracts the highest GST rate of 28% and a compensation cess of 204%, taking effective rate to 252%. In some cases, the cess is levied on the MRP of the product after including the 28% GST. Currently, compensation cess is levied on luxury and sin goods like aerated drinks, tobacco and related products, motor vehicles, yacht and other vessels for pleasure or sports. Compensation Cess was levied to compensate the states for losses incurred by the states due to implementation of GST.

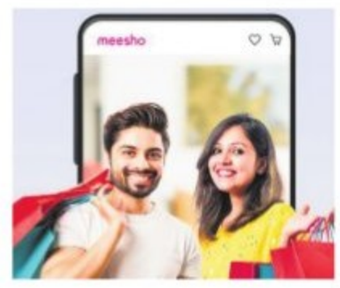
The MoS finance apprised the media of the government's achievements in building infrastructure in the past 10 years. He said from roads to railways to civil aviation, infrastructural landscape has seen unprecedented growth, fostering connectivity, economic development, and improved quality of life.

He outlined how the allocation to capex grew under the Modi government from 5 lakh crore in 2021-22 to Rs 11.11 lakh crore in 2024-25. The minister said that despite slow growth in capex spending in the current financial year, the government is confident of fully utilising the fund allocated (Rs 11.11 lakh crore) for infra spending in FY25.



Gen Z accounts for one-third of Meesho's customer base

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

FOR Meesho, Gen Z is rapidly emerging as the fastest-growing ecommerce demographic as it accounts for one-third of the company's userbase. The SoftBank-backed ecommerce marketplace has witnessed a notable rise in demand for products aligned with Gen Z's (people born from 1997-2012) values.

On Friday, Meesho in its 2024 Review announced that it recorded a 35% y-o-y order growth in 2024, driven by expanding consumption in small towns, Gen Z and Gen AI innovation. Among Gen Z shoppers, there has been an increase in orders for items such as glass sippers, reusable straws, makeup wipes, sneakers, and resistance bands.

For about 75% of Gen Z shoppers, purchasing trendy or viral products is a way of expressing their individuality, and over half of these shoppers use the wishlist feature to save items they aspire to own, while many also monitor discounts closely, said Meesho, adding creators and influencers have further fuelled this trend as they help Gen Z discover new items.

In FY24, its operating cash flow stood at ₹232 crore and its revenue from operations in the same period increased by 33%, and touched ₹7,615 crore. It reached about 175 million annual transacting users in 2024 and interestingly, half of the user base came from tier4+ towns such as Naidupeta (Andhra Pradesh), Sherghati (Bihar), and Harapanahalli (Karnataka).

VIL to invest ₹50,000-55,000 cr to strengthen 4G, 5G network rollout

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

VODAFONE IDEA LIMITED (VIL) on Friday announced that it plans to invest nearly ₹50,000-₹55,000 crore over the next three years to expand its 4G network across 17 priority circles.

The telco, in an investor presentation, also revealed plans to deploy its 4G network on the sub-GHz 900 MHz band across 16 circles, aiming to improve coverage and enhance the user experience. This capital expenditure (capex) will also support the rollout and expansion of VIL's 5G network in key urban areas and regions.

For the first half of FY25 (H1FY25), VIL's capex stood at over ₹2,000 crore, resulting in a 14% increase in 4G data capacity and expanding its 4G population coverage by 22 million. The company expects its capex in the second half of FY25 (H2FY25) to be nearly ₹8,000 crore. Currently, Vodafone Group holds a 22.56% stake in VIL, while the Aditya Birla Group owns 14.76% and the Indian government is the largest shareholder with a 23.15% stake.

Plans to deploy 4G network across 16 circles

The telco, in an investor presentation, also revealed plans to deploy its 4G network on the sub-GHz 900 MHz band across 16 circles, aiming to improve coverage and enhance the user experience. This capital expenditure (capex) will also support the rollout and expansion of VIL's 5G network in key urban areas and regions.

VIL remains the only private telecom service provider in India that has yet to launch its commercial 5G network. In contrast, its competitors, Reliance Jio and Bharti Airtel, have already rolled out 5G services.

This delay in 5G rollout has led to customer churn. The company has, however, announced plans to launch its commercial 5G services in March 2025, beginning with Delhi and Mumbai.

VIL has reduced its losses to ₹7,176 crore in Q2FY25 as against ₹8,738 crore in the same quarter last year. During the quarter, its mobile average revenue per user (ARPU), excluding machine-to-machine connections, grew by 7.8% QoQ, rising from ₹154 in the April-June period to ₹166.

Forex reserves decline by $3.23 bn to $654.86 bn; rupee surges 10 paise

BENN KOCHUVEEDAN @ Mumbai

WITH the rupee plumbing new lows and touching 84.88 to the dollar last week, the Reserve Bank continued to sell the greenback, leading to a further fall in the forex reserves by $3.23 billion to $654.86 billion for the week to December 6. After eight weeks of steep declines, forex reserves had gained marginally in the previous reporting week. As per the weekly statistical supplement released by the central bank Friday, foreign exchange reserves declined by $3.23 billion to $654.86 billion during the week ending December 6. In the preceding eight weeks, the reserves had lost by over $55 billion.

The RBI said the drop was mainly due to a fall in foreign currency assets, which are the largest component of the forex assets and fell by $3.22 billion to $565.62 billion during the reporting week.

The reserves had peaked at $704.8 billion in the week to September 27. And since then it has been on a declining path as the rupee came under severe stress. Gold reserves remained relatively stable, while SDRs and the IMF reserve position saw minor increases. Gold reserves, however, remained relatively stable, showing a marginal decline of $43 million to $66.94 billion.

Special drawing rights saw a slight increase of $25 million, reaching $1.80 billion, while the reserve position with the International Monetary Fund rising by $12 million to $4.27 billion.

Meanwhile, the rupee recovered 10 paise to end at 84.78 on Friday, December 13. It was partly due to the late rally in the market with benchmarks gaining 1 percent each.

GUKESH SUPER KING WITH GAJEWSKI-UPTON BY HIS SIDE

Trainer & mental coach recall challenges the Indian GM faced, how he retained his calm during those testing times & process he followed to become a world champ

INSANELY mature.

You don't normally use this phrase to describe the maturity of an 18-year-old but it's a phrase Grzegorz Gajewski uses when talking about his ward, D Gukesh.

He isn't alone.

Paddy Upton has an unwritten rule. Well, kind of. He doesn't normally work with young people because their ability to self-reflect isn't yet on point. A couple of minutes into his first conversation with the then-17-year-old, Upton made an exception. Because the South African realised the person on the other end of the internet connection didn't have the mind of a 17-year-old.

"His depth and level of self-awareness were remarkable," Upton tells this daily a day after Gukesh became the youngest undisputed world chess champion. This masthead spoke to both Gajewski and Upton to get an insight into how the teen pulled it off. When 55...Rf2 was on the board by Ding Liren in game 14 on Thursday, what was the Pole thinking? "It felt like a gift in the most unexpected moment," he says. "I was on my way to dinner and they were supposed to play for one more hour and maybe make a draw."

In an alternate universe, the Indian would not have punished the move. But Upton and Gukesh spent hours on what to do when you are on the doorstep of a win.

"What are the distractions of getting excited and over-attacking? You have half an eye on the result and there's a possibility of taking half an eye from the chessboard. That's when you may make a mistake."

The Indian almost responded to the blunder with a mistake of his own. When he realised what Liren had done, he calmed himself before trading the rooks. Once they were off, it was academic.

If it was academic at the end of game 14, the 18-year-old had a mild existential crisis going into the third rest day. When he had arrived in Singapore, he was quietly sure of walking away with the crown. In those two weeks from game one till game nine, his opponent had slowly pricked and prodded at his young opponent's confidence. A prick here. A prod there. A blow somewhere. After he finished that game with the White pieces, he took Gajewski aside and said something extremely worrying.

'Worried about losing'

"That was when he openly said he was worried about losing," Gajewski, a former second to Viswanathan Anand, says. "For the whole time he thought he would win, he would eventually find a way and then he realised his opponent kept defending, the match was tied and anything could happen. He realised that but to say it openly, to admit it's a problem and feel the pressure and feel that bad things can happen... we discussed it. We made some changes for the rest day. We went to the beach, we tried to make his day as enjoyable as possible because it's extremely exhausting to deal with pressure for not just the two weeks but during the games as well. That helped for sure."

D Gukesh poses with the trophy a day after winning the World Championship | FIDE

In game 10, he was fully recharged.

Around that time, another thing helped. Gukesh and Upton spoke about the former's sleep hygiene as the Indian was a bit groggy on the board. The South African dipped into his knowledge bank to come up with an idea. "What's the temperature setting in your AC," Upton remembers asking the teen. When he said it was 24*c, Upton asked him to bring it down to 22*c. "When you sleep, you want your body to cool down," the mental conditioning coach tells this daily. "This is a slightly warmer environment and that's probably the optimal sleeping temperature although everyone is slightly different." They also decided to slightly tweak his yoga nidra (in simple terms, 'effortless relaxation').

The morning after he implemented the change, the Indian slept eight hours. Yet another tick. The stars were gradually aligning and it culminated with him taking the lead in the 11th game of the Championship. When his opponent came roaring back with the White pieces, there may have been a danger of his confidence taking a beating. Yet, when he met Gajewski that night after the 12th game, Gukesh was confident of a win. "He didn't have any problems with losing (that game)," the Pole says. "He felt confident that he would win this match and wasn't afraid of the match going to tie-breaks."

He had expressed that same confidence during a conversation with Upton immediately after that loss in game 12. The man on the other end of the phone line was so taken aback by what he had listened, he had already made his mind up to fly to Singapore to watch his ward become a world champion. "I spoke with him and I had realised he's strong, he's holding, he's got a clear strategy and he's in a good space," Upton says. "I have come to learn that he's a man for the big moments. I had a strong feeling that he's going to win this. That's why I flew over. On the flight here, I imagined I'm probably going to meet him for the first time after the match and I'm probably going to hug him when I look him in the eye and say 'you are the world champion and you deserve it'."

That's exactly what happened.

'If not now, when' moment for youngsters

India batters Yashasvi Jaiswal (L) and Shubman Gill during an optional training session in Brisbane on Friday | AFP

Chapter 3 begins

WITH BOTH TEAMS LOOKING TO TAKE THE LEAD, A LOOK AT KEY TALKING POINTS...

Washington, Akash Deep in?

Having been ignored for the pink-ball contest, Washington — the off-spinning all-rounder — could make a return in Brisbane. Similarly, Akash Deep might walk in for Harshit Rana. Both of them spent a lot of time in the nets in the build-up to the match.

Will Rohit move up again?

With Rohit Sharma's gamble of moving down the order not paying off in Adelaide, it will be interesting to see if he opens again. As much as he spent a lot of time in the nets on Thursday, him moving up will not be fair to both him and Rahul.

Rain on cards

Brisbane has been seeing some rains in the lead up to the Test and Saturday could be no different. While severe thunderstorms are expected through the course of the day, locals suggest that it could either be a massive downpour or a passing one.

Pitch play

Unlike how it looked till Thursday, a huge chunk of grass has been shaven off and Gabba pitch now has a tinge of green. It will be interesting to see how the pitch acts up due to overnight rains and the weather on Saturday.

Playing XIs

India (likely): Rahul/Sharma, Jaiswal, Gill, Kohli, Rahul/Sharma (C), Pant, Washington, Reddy, Bumrah, Siraj, Akash Deep

Australia (announced): Nathan, Usman, Marnus, Smith, Head, Carey, Marsh, Cummins, Starc, Lyon, Hazlewood

India vs Australia, third Test, Brisbane

Live on Star Sports and Hotstar from 5.50 AM

MORNE Morkel was at the start of his short run-up, ready to jog in at the outdoor nets of The Gabba on Friday afternoon. He had been at it for a while on a breezy afternoon in Brisbane. Facing him at the crease was Yashasvi Jaiswal, who seemingly looked down at his stance just when Morkel was starting. The former South African pacer and India's current bowling coach stopped midway and gestured with his hand, checking what happened. Morkel tried to start again, and Jaiswal looked down just then. And again. Thrice in a row.

At this point, Morkel wasn't amused one bit. This time, he waited. He waited till Jaiswal looked up after looking down and then ran in. A sharp bouncer came the youngster's way and he ducked. Morkel wasn't done. He delivered another bumper which Jaiswal awkwardly tried to pull before playing down the last one.

If Morkel had the upper hand for the span of those three balls, Jaiswal, along with Shubman Gill and Rishabh Pant (who were the only sure starters turned up for optional training on Friday), took him on with ease through the rest of his stint. Watching from the outside, it seemed like an instantaneous contest while prepping for a particular tactic, but evidently, there was more to it. "He keeps teasing us that I used to bowl like this in my youth," Gill explained of Morkel in the pre-match press conference. "So when we play, we say that the wicket is good to bowl, show us how you used to bowl. We have fun in such contests," added the youngster.

That, in essence, sums up the kind of attitude this generation of batters have brought to the table. India's famous win at the Gabba last time around was a result of it. Whether it is the freakish genius of Pant or audacious stroke-making of Gill, or the serenity that Washington Sundar showed, it all played a part in India making history.

As they return to The Gabba with the series levelled 1-1, it is these three youngsters India will be looking at with hope. Yes, KL Rahul looked good in Perth, Virat Kohli scored a century, and Rohit Sharma will continue to search for runs. However, it's the trifecta of Jaiswal, Gill and Pant who will determine whether India dominate or not. It is these three who haven't shied away from taking Australia on and has the ability to change the course of the game in a matter of few hours. They are not intimidated by what Pat Cummins has to say or teasing Mitchell Starc that he is not fast enough. They go into bat looking to take on the ball with no care in the world for whose hand it comes from. They do not have the scars of past series defeats and what happened before their time is irrelevant to them. "I think the last four series we played against Australia, we have won. We have won the last two times, and we have won in India too. If you are a batter, then you should watch the ball, that thing is more in this generation, that it doesn't matter who is bowling," said Gill.

When they bat together, even if it is at the nets, they talk about not going too far with the attack while ensuring they don't go into a shell. They know what went wrong for them so far as well. Take the case of Gill. He admits that he missed a straight delivery in the first innings in Adelaide while struggling to sight the full-length inswinger from Starc in the second. However, he knows that the red ball is going to be different. He knows that once it's 30 overs old, there is a 50-over period where the batters can cash in.

That is what the Indian batting line-up would be looking at when they get on the field in the first innings. Not just the three youngsters, but it has been the discussion amongst everyone. "As a batting group we are looking to post a big total first up, this has been one of the key discussions and depending on every batter, I think is going to have its own game plan. Collectively we are going to try to get a big first-inning score, that's what the discussion was about after Adelaide," said Gill.

However, it is not going to be easy. The pitch, while described as a 'good wicket', has a tinge of green even after the grass is shaved off. And then there is the forecast for rain on Day 1. While India would want to bat first and score big, it will be interesting to see how the morning of day one looks. One thing is clear though. Irrespective of when they get to bat, a lot will ride on how the youngsters rise up to the occasion. As former head coach Rahul Dravid famously said to Gill in Ranchi earlier this year, if not them, who? If not now, when?

Local lad Labuschagne arrives at Marnus-land

GOMESH S @Brisbane

Marnus Labuschagne at Redlands Tigers Cricket Club in Brisbane

SHORTLY after India's win in Perth, Sean Llyod, President of the Redlands Tigers Cricket Club, had come out and offered Marnus Labuschagne an option of sorts. The Australia's No 3 had been struggling with form and quite a few comments were made to drop him for the second Test. With almost nine days between two games, Llyod had offered Labuschagne an option of turning up for his local club if he wanted to.

While Labuschagne didn't play a club game that weekend, he did the second-best thing possible. Days after the Perth game, he was at Wellington Point in Brisbane, having a hit in the Tigers nets. It was nothing new for him, and neither was it the case for Llyod and others in the club. Labuschagne has been given his own set of keys and can walk in and use the nets whenever he wants to.

After all, it has been the place the 30-year-old has spent almost two-thirds of his life. Llyod himself has known him since 2008 when he joined the club. The two of them used to travel together and Labuschagne loved talking about cricket. "I used to catch the train into the city of Brisbane CBD for work. Even at an early age, he'd love to fill up on information. To the point where if you're sitting on the train, and he'd come and sit next to you. We'd talk about cricket. Some days it made the train travel go quite quickly," Llyod recalls in a conversation with this daily.

Being grounded, and humble while having the self-belief of a mountain has always been Labuschagne's strengths. To use Llyod's words, "he was destined to be." Labuschagne believed that if someone puts in the time, work or effort, and things fall in place, you could become a great cricketer. As fate would have it, Labuschagne's work helped him get into his groove in Adelaide where he scored a crucial fifty in the first innings. What better way to come to your home ground than after finding some form. "He'll be primed. He loves playing at the Gabba," says Llyod.

"A lot of kids around Brisbane, around Queensland, who play grassroots cricket, if you ask them who their hero is, half of them, probably more than three-quarters of them are going to say, my hero is Marnus. They idolise him when he's a hero as well as what he does on the field, but it's also the person that he is as well, that's important."

It's almost 7 PM on Friday in Brisbane. As one strolls down the street from The Gabba and turns towards Lytton Road, there comes a bus stop. On the digital screen at the stopping, blinks an ad. It reads "See Marnus put it all on the line" with an intense picture of Labuschagne and a countdown to the start of the match. Indeed, expect Labuschagne to put it all on the line in his backyard.

Siverio powers Jamshedpur FC

ENS @ Chennai

JAVIER SIVERIO scored a double as Jamshedpur FC recorded a 2-1 victory over Punjab FC in the Indian Super League in Jamshedpur on Friday. The home side drew first blood at the stroke of half-time. Shubham Sarangi's long throw inside the Punjab penalty box was flicked on by a couple of players towards Siverio. The latter positioned himself nicely to get over the ball and hit it beyond the reach of the goalkeeper.

However, Punjab found the equaliser soon after the start of the second-half. It was a well-worked goal. Luka Majcen made a run towards the byline before cutting the ball inside and finding an unmarked Ezequiel Vidal, who made no mistake from close range.

With just six minutes of regulation time left, the home side found the goal which proved to be decisive.

Rahane, Patidar sizzle as Mumbai, MP enter final

ENS/AGENCIES @ Chennai

AJINKYA RAHANE and Rajat Patidar played whirlwind knocks as their respective sides — Mumbai and Madhya Pradesh — stormed into the final of the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy on Friday. In the first match at the M Chinnaswamy Stadium in Bengaluru, Rahane slammed 98 off 56 balls to help Mumbai thrash Baroda. In the next match at the same venue, Patidar made an unbeaten 66 off 29 balls as his team defeated Delhi.

In the first semifinal, Mumbai bowlers chipped away at regular intervals to restrict Baroda to 158/7. While chasing, they lost opener Prithvi Shaw (8) early but Rahane and skipper Shreyas Iyer (46 off 30 balls) added 78 runs for the second wicket in just nine overs. The partnership knocked the stuffing out of Baroda. Rahane was on 98 when Mumbai needed two more runs to win, and pacer Abhimanyu Rajput bowled a wide, perhaps purposefully, as the scores went level. The crowd expressed their displeasure with loud boos and jeers, but in the very next ball, Rahane got out.

In the evening, MP bowlers put up a clinical performance, with Venkatesh Iyer (2/12) taking two wickets to restrict Delhi to 146/5. MP overhauled the target in 15.4 overs. The final will be played on Sunday. Brief scores: Baroda 158/7 in 20 ovs (Shivalik Sharma 34 n.o; Suryansh Shedge 2/11) lost to Mumbai 164/4 in 17.2 ovs (Ajinkya Rahane 98, Shreyas Iyer 46); Delhi 146/5 in 20 ovs (Anuj Rawat 33 n.o; Venkatesh Iyer 2/12) lost to MP 152/3 in 15.4 ovs (Rajat Patidar 66 n.o, Harpreet Singh 46 n.o).

Man United grab win, Spurs held by Rangers

AGENCIES @ Paris

RASMUS HOJLUND fired Manchester United to a late 2-1 win at Viktoria Plzen in the Europa League on Thursday, while Tottenham were held to a stalemate at Rangers.

Ruben Amorim's United side came from behind to best the Czech side thanks to a second-half brace by Danish striker Hojlund, they now sit seventh in the league phase standings.

A top-eight finish will see United qualify automatically for the round of 16, while finishing ninth to 24th will earn them a play-off tie to reach that stage. Matej Vydra opened the scoring three minutes after half-time to stun United, before substitute Hojlund scored twice in the last half-hour to seize a vital three points for the English club.

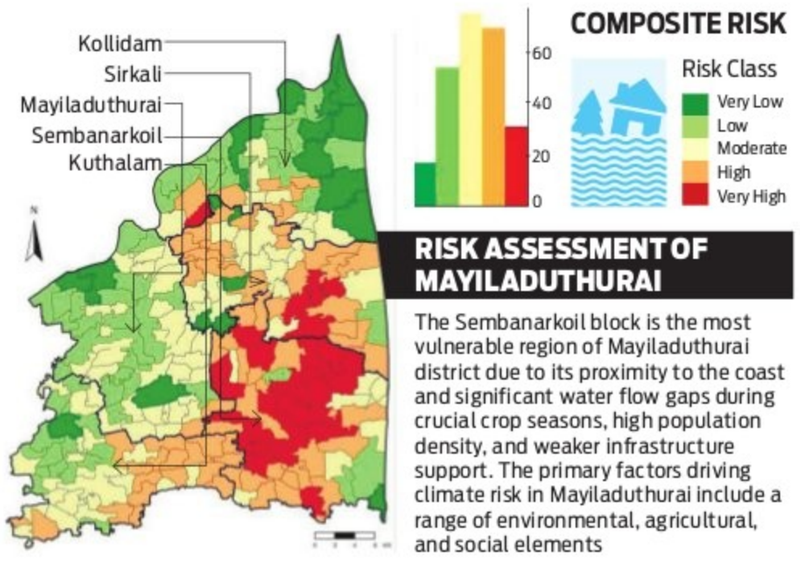
MAYILADUTHURAI MOST VULNERABLE TO CLIMATE CHANGE, ACTION PLAN UNVEILED



RISK ASSESSMENT OF MAYILADUTHURAI

The Sembanarkoil block is the most vulnerable region of Mayiladuthurai district due to its proximity to the coast and significant water flow gaps during crucial crop seasons, high population density, and weaker infrastructure support. The primary factors driving climate risk in Mayiladuthurai include a range of environmental, agricultural, and social elements

S V KRISHNA CHAITANYA @Chennai

MAYILADUTHURAI became the first district in Tamil Nadu to get a District Climate Action Plan (DCAP), an ambitious move to tackle the pressing challenges posed by climate change.

The DCAP prepared by Anna University's Climate Studio with the support of the Department of Environment and Climate Change, was released by Chief Minister M K Stalin during a recent meeting of the Tamil Nadu Governing Council on Climate Change.

Among all districts in the state, Mayiladuthurai is most susceptible to the adverse effects of climate change, such as rising sea levels, erratic rainfall and extreme weather events. The DCAP identifies agriculture, water resources, coastal ecosystems, and habitats as critical sectors that require immediate attention.

Mayiladuthurai, where 71.9% of the land is dedicated to farming, thrives on its paddy fields and diverse crops, including pulses and cotton. The district's reliance on the Cauvery river for irrigation makes it vulnerable to water stress and flooding. According to the DCAP, 75 of the district's 247 villages are at high risk of flooding, while 129 face severe drought threats.

Projected climate changes could significantly reduce the yields of key rice varieties. For instance, the Kuruvai season variety ADT 43 is expected to see an 8-11% decline, and the Samba variety ADT 54 might drop by nearly 14%. These losses will exacerbate food security challenges and strain the livelihoods of the predominantly rural population. "Rice, the backbone of our agricultural economy, is under severe threat from shifting climatic conditions," the report warns.

Mayiladuthurai's water scenario is paradoxical. While the district benefits from the Cauvery's distributaries, it faces a growing challenge of groundwater over-extraction and salinity intrusion in coastal areas. Groundwater levels have already shown a worrying decline between 2011 and 2020, as highlighted in the action plan.

To combat these issues, the plan advocates for integrated water resource management. Key actions include constructing tail-end regulators to recharge groundwater and prevent salinity intrusion, desilting channels annually, and connecting field channels to improve irrigation. By 2025, the district aims to provide sustainable water supply to over 93% of households and ensure that 13,161 households have tap water connections.

Mayiladuthurai's 70.9 km coastal stretch, part of the Coromandel Coast, is marked by beaches, estuaries, and mangroves. Yet, this unique ecosystem faces severe erosion, with 3.69 km of the coastline experiencing high erosion rates of up to 2.7 metres per year.

Rising sea levels, projected to increase by 20.3 cm by 2100, could inundate 398 hectares of land, including agricultural areas and lagoons.

Mangroves, which cover 560 hectares, play a critical role in protecting the coastline and supporting fisheries. However, their fragile state demands immediate conservation efforts. The action plan suggests expanding mangrove plantations and strengthening shelter belts to mitigate the impact of rising seas and shoreline changes.

Mayiladuthurai's population density of 785 people per square kilometre — significantly higher than the state average — intensifies the need for resilient habitats. The district experiences 180 days of discomfort annually due to rising temperatures and humidity, posing health risks and increasing energy demands.

The action plan recommends enhancing climate-responsive urban planning, such as improving green cover, developing eco-tourism infrastructure, and upgrading wastewater management systems. Additionally, installing solar-powered pumps for farmers and rooftop solar installations in 90,000 households by 2030 will help reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

"This plan emerges from a comprehensive climate risk assessment. It highlights actionable strategies that prioritise nature-based solutions, community-driven initiatives, and sustainable practices," said A P Mahabharathi, district collector.

Kurian Joseph, Director, Centre for Climate Change and Disaster Management, Anna University, said: "As part of the exercise, we have done village-level assessments. Such granular analysis ensures precision in addressing the unique challenges faced by each community."

The Sembanarkoil block is the most vulnerable in Mayiladuthurai, primarily due to its coastal proximity, climate hazards, water flow gaps, population density, and weak infrastructure.

Twenty-four Gram Panchayats are classified as very high climate risk, while 78 are high risk. Major climate risk drivers include floods, droughts, soil fertility, proximity to rivers, tree cover, water access, and agricultural productivity.

The Mayiladuthurai DCAP serves as a model for other districts in Tamil Nadu. The Climate Studio has also prepared a Climate Risk Assessment and Adaptation Plan of Tamil Nadu, which ranked districts on the lines of climate risks. Mayiladuthurai tops that list.

Popular Bengaluru-based band – Best Kept Secret – is set to open for Bryan Adams at his much-anticipated concert in the city today

Bryan Adams

BEHRAM Siganporia, Bengaluru-based band Best Kept Secret's lead vocalist, was just 16 years old when he attended Bryan Adams' 2011 concert in the city. "I was absolutely mesmerised by him. To see my idol performing in front of me...it was a real rock star moment and an eye-opener. I thought: You know what? I also want to pursue music," says Siganporia. The band is set to open for Bryan Adams' concert in Bengaluru today and in Hyderabad on Monday.

Seeing Adams perform live with his signature husky voice and commanding stage presence 13 years ago influenced the trajectory of Siganporia's life in ways that he could never have anticipated – his band, currently in the middle of a world tour, is one of the most popular acts in the Indian live music scene today. Opening for Adams comes as a full-circle moment. "The first song I learnt on the guitar was 'Summer of '69. Years after watching his concert, now I'm going to be on stage with him – it's an emotional moment," says Siganporia. "This is a big moment for the band. It's the next step in our careers, because we've been on a roll for the last couple of years, performing everywhere around the world and now to finally get onto a very big stage like this is very cool," says the pilot who turned musician.

The band, consisting of Siganporia, Hemanth Diwakaran on guitar, Abhilash EK on drums, and Steve Rajan on keyboard, is known for their fun, upbeat melodies that blend pop, rock, funk and blues, and will be performing a mix of their well-known original songs alongside some nostalgic covers. "We want to showcase our original music too, and will be playing Can't Let You Go which was number one on the Apple Music charts in India for a long time; Moving On; She's Out of Control which is a nice rock and roll song; and Come a Little Closer from our next album. We're also going to throw in a few covers by artistes from the '80s and '90s, just to bring that nostalgia factor which is always associated with Bryan Adams."

Talking about performing at home and Bengalureans' response to the news, Siganporia says, "Messages have been pouring in saying that they're so excited to watch us along with Bryan Adams and wishing us the best. They want us to grow, and see us on bigger stages and in bigger arenas. Having home support and a home base like Bengaluru feels very special."

FITBIT

BANANASANA VARIATION
(BANANA POSE VARIATION)

This is a variation of the base pose of Bananasana, which is a reclining yoga pose, stretching the sides of the body, from the shoulders to the hips. It is considered a cooling and passive pose in Yin Yoga, as it encourages the body to relax deeply into the stretch. The stretching action creates a shape that resembles the alphabet 'C', compressing one side of the chest and abdomen, with the opposite side being stretched.

STEPS

- Lie down on your back comfortably with legs stretched out, arms clasped and stretched overhead. Take a few breaths bringing awareness to the body.
- Gently bend/tilt the upper body with the hands clasped, head in between your hands, and shoulders on the ground.
- Cross your left foot over your right ankle.
- Inhale. This bend should be archival and parallel to the ground without allowing your hips to roll.
- Stay focused on the stretch and keep the body relaxed.
- Exhale, release and stretch the arms, flatten them on the mat, relax the spine and take the legs back to the starting position.

BENEFITS

- Holding this pose for extended periods works on deeper layers of muscle and connective tissue, releases tension and increases mobility.
- Activates the parasympathetic nervous system, encourages relaxation and reduces stress.
- Strengthens the muscles at the shoulders, arms, hamstrings, gluteus, calves, chest, core, and lower back.
- Gives a range of motion to the runners, and sportsmen by this supine side stretch.
- Expands the diaphragm
- Aids in avoiding inflammatory bowel disease, herniated disc or spondylitis.
- Great way for releasing the tensions accumulated at the neck and shoulders.
- It energises and relaxes the entire body.
- Stimulates the liver and stomach from the stretch of the core, and digestion is improved.
- This pose helps activate the Manipura (Solar Plexus) Chakra.
- Helps senior citizens feel relaxed and calm.

LIMITATIONS

- Students who have issues with lower back, neck pain or neck injuries should be careful and not stretch the muscles too far.
- Avoid rolling your hips. They should be parallel to the ground.
- One may choose to place a bolster underneath the knees, only if necessary.
- People suffering from severe sciatica should also avoid this pose.

BENGALURU'S charm lies in its layered history, where the modern tech metropolis coexists with its storied past. At the National Gallery of Modern Art (NGMA), a unique exhibition titled From Bangalore, with Love offers a glimpse into this past through an extraordinary collection of postcards. Curated by photographer Clare Arni, Bengaluru-born artist Archana Hande, and art historian Suresh Jayaram, the exhibition transports visitors to the late 19th and early 20th centuries, a time when the city was a burgeoning blend of British Cantonment and traditional pete (market) areas.

The postcards, dating from 1890 to 1910, were originally part of a collection amassed by Arni's father, Martin Henry, who was the director of the textile company Madura Coats. "My father only collected postcards from that period," Arni shares, "Possibly because it was shortly after postcards were introduced to India because his collection stopped around 1910."

When Henry's collection was willed to Arni, she wanted to ensure it didn't languish unseen in boxes. "It's such an incredible archive, and I wanted to share it with a larger audience," she says. Over the years, historians and researchers have accessed the collection, including Jayaram, who encountered it while writing his book Bangalore's Lalbagh: A Chronicle of the Garden and the City. Their shared admiration for the archive sparked the idea for this exhibition. "We love the idea of archives so it became really easy to collaborate and bring this together. After discussing the categories and looking at all the postcards, it became easy to choose," says Hande, adding, "All of the postcards are my favourites. It is a city archive which tells you the story of the past which has evolved from the Garden City to the IT City."

The exhibition features 50 postcards selected from the 250 images of Bengaluru in Arni's collection. The curation, however, was anything but arbitrary. "We noticed the postcards primarily depicted a central route through Bengaluru, covering areas like Cubbon Park, MG Road, and Commercial Street," Arni explains. This insight inspired the curators to organise the exhibition as a visual journey through the city, illustrating both its architectural and social history.

While Henry had categorised the postcards into places and people, Arni made a deliberate choice to merge these categories. "I didn't want it to be purely architectural," she says. "I included images of the people of Bengaluru as well, giving the exhibition a more holistic representation of the city's past." Given the small size of the postcards, another thoughtful curatorial decision was to enlarge the images significantly. "We wanted visitors to appreciate the intricate details that would otherwise require a magnifying glass," Arni adds. The result is a display that brings the textures and nuances of a bygone era into sharp focus.

(The exhibition is on display till December 15 at the National Gallery of Modern Art, Vasanth Nagar)

DRINKS WITH BENEFITS

INFUSED water is a beverage prepared by soaking ingredients to allow flavour and nutrients to dissolve in water. Water is the elixir of life, essential for maintaining hydration and supporting countless bodily functions. To ensure optimal health, the body needs one to two and a half litres of drinking water daily as an essential nutrient to aid digestion and regulate metabolism and body balance.

Infused water is a simple and flavourful way to enhance hydration while reaping health benefits. By combining mineral water with fresh fruits, vegetables, or spices, this natural beverage offers a refreshing alternative to plain water, encouraging increased water intake, supporting the body's acid-base balance, and providing essential nutrients to boost immunity. Free from sweeteners or ice, it is a healthy, customisable drink that can be prepared using one or several ingredients.

By swapping sugary sodas for infused water, you can reduce calories while reaping the benefits of phytonutrients.

● Lemon Water

Lemons are renowned for their high vitamin C content and abundant antioxidants, containing approximately 3.7 per cent citric acid and 40-50 mg of vitamin C per 100 grams. When added to infused water, lemons provide anti-carcinogenic (anti-cancerous) benefits through compounds called limonoids, help balance the body's pH levels, and support detoxification.

● Dates Water

Prophet Muhammad is known to have consumed nabeez, a drink made by soaking dates in water. Dates are highly nutritious, providing 277 kcal of energy, 74.97 g of carbohydrates, 1.81 g of protein, 149 IU of vitamin A, 15 mcg of folic acid, 696 mg of potassium, 54 mg of magnesium, 64 mg of calcium, and 89 mg of beta carotene. With in infused water, dates offer natural sweetness, balancing the tartness of lemon.

● Turmeric Water

Turmeric, a plant native to Indonesia, is rich in curcumin and essential oils, with its rhizomes containing an average curcumin content of 10.92 per cent. Curcuminoids, the primary antioxidant compounds in turmeric, give it a yellow hue and provide a range of health benefits, including anti-cholesterol, anti-tumour, anti-inflammatory, and anti-cancer properties. Additionally, white saffron, often processed into powder, exhibits potent antioxidant activity and is known for its antidiabetic, anti-cholesterol, and anti-ageing effects. Infused water made with dates, lemon, and turmeric has been studied for its rich antioxidant content derived from all three ingredients.

● Carom, Cumin, and Fennel Seeds Water

When infused together, these seeds create a synergistic effect, offering relief from common gastric issues such as indigestion, acidity, bloating, and gas. Regular consumption can improve gut health, enhance digestive efficiency, and provide a soothing effect on the stomach. To prepare, soak a teaspoon each of carom, cumin, and fennel seeds in water overnight, strain, and drink the infused water in the morning or after meals for optimal digestive support. The seeds can also be boiled with water, strained and consumed for immediate relief from gastric distress.

THARUN SUDHIR'S NEXT PRODUCTION TO BE DIRECTED BY PUNIT RANGASWAMY

Set to be an intense love thriller, inspired by real events, the film will be produced by Tharun Sudhir Kreatiivez in collaboration with Atlanta Nagendra.

A SHARADHAA

THARUN Kishore Sudhir, the director of Chowka and Kaatera, is gearing up for his second production venture under Tharun Sudhir Kreatiivez. Following the success of Guru Shishyaru, this upcoming project, co-produced with Atlanta Nagendra, is an intense love thriller based on a real-life incident. The yet-to-be-titled film marks the directorial debut of Punit Rangaswamy, a lyricist and storyteller who previously collaborated with Tharun on Kaatera, penning the popular 'Raitha' song, and 'Aane Maadi Heluteeni' for Guru Shishyaru. Sharing how the project came about, Tharun said, "Punit Rangaswamy has been working on the story for quite some time, and initially, he only sought my guidance as a creative head. But the layers of the narrative and its rooted essence caught my attention. I decided to produce the film because I believe we can do justice to it."

Punit Rangaswamy and Tharun Kishore Sudhir

The story, set against the Karnataka-Tamil Nadu border surrounding Chamarajanagar, Salem, and Erode, delves into an intense love story with a gripping thriller element. "It's a mix of genres—raw, thought-provoking, and deeply rooted in reality. The incident that inspired the story, which took place in MM Hills, adds a unique layer of intrigue," Tharun explained.

Atlanta Nagendra, who has been a long-time collaborator with Tharun on Rambo and Raambo 2, was equally impressed by the story. "When Nagendra heard the script during his visit to Bengaluru, he immediately wanted to collaborate. It's a project that excited all of us," Tharun said.

The team aims to begin shooting by the end of December and plans to introduce fresh faces in the lead roles. "We're looking for actors without predefined images to ensure the story takes centre stage. We will announce the cast details soon," Tharun revealed.

Presented by Narasimha Nayak (Raju Gowda), the film's technical crew includes Sudhakar S Raj as the cinematographer, KM Prakash as the editor, and Rajshekar as the art director. The music director is yet to be finalised.

CE FEATURES

FATHER, starring Darling Krishna and Prakash Raj and directed by Raj Mohan, has completed its shoot, and the first motion poster was unveiled by actor Kichcha Sudeep at a star-studded event. The launch was attended by prominent political leader HM Revanna and other notable figures. Anand Audio has secured the film's audio rights.

Father marks the debut production of RC Studios, a new venture by R Chandru, who has also announced the production of five upcoming films under this banner. Father will be the first film to hit theatres, bringing a unique story to audiences.

Actor Kichcha Sudeep, a close friend of director R Chandru, expressed his strong support for the film. Reflecting on his rapport with the director and producer, Sudeep said, "I will stand by Chandru for all his films, irrespective of their outcome." Sudeep also stressed the importance of appreciating the effort behind a film. "All films, including Father, carry meaning and hard work. It's important to focus on that rather than simply criticising," he added.

Highlighting the film's depth, Sudeep noted, "Father is not just a commercial movie; it has relevance and depth. Every story has its own life, and Father is one such story that drew me in when I watched the glimpses." He concluded by wishing the team, including lead actors Krishna and Amrutha, the best in their endeavors. "Krishna's elevation with each film as an actor is his effort," he said.

R Chandru shared his personal journey during the event, recalling his early days in Bangalore. He said, "22 years ago, I came to Bangalore with 100 rupees, and now, I'm making films like Kabzaa, which has grossed over Rs 100 crore. I owe it all to the people who have supported me." Chandru also expressed his excitement about his new venture, RC Studios, and its ambitious plans. "After producing 12 films under Siddeshwara Enterprises, I started RC Studios to make a mark in the Kannada film industry. I want to make every film through this production house a pan-India film, and Father will be a pan-India release," he shared. "I've announced five films under RC Studios, and the journey has just begun. I believe Father will offer a beautiful, emotional experience," he added.

Father, which focuses on the bond between a father and his son, stars Prakash Raj and Darling Krishna in pivotal roles. Chandru highlighted the unique aspect of the film, saying, "It's a big canvas for Father, a story about the father-son relationship, which is quite rare in films."

Lead actor Darling Krishna shared his excitement about the project, especially the opportunity to work with Prakash Raj. "When I first heard the story, I loved it, and I am grateful to Milana for encouraging me to join the project. I'm confident that Father will leave a lasting impact on audiences," Krishna remarked. He also praised the film's focus on the sensitive father-son relationship. "It was great to work with Prakash Raj, and it will definitely help me grow as an actor," he added.

Director Raj Mohan confirmed that the film's shooting would be completed once two songs are filmed. He also shared that the film's motion poster, theme, and concept have been carefully crafted to reflect its essence. "The core message of Father is central to its design, and I believe it will resonate with the audience," he said. "The film will offer something unique about father-son stories. While this theme is common in cinema, Father will stand out. It's a film that will not leave any viewer dissatisfied," Raj Mohan assured.

Amrutha Iyengar, the lead actress, expressed her gratitude for being part of Father. "I'm proud of my role in Father, and I'm thankful to Krishna's wife, Milana Nagaraj, as well as Krishna, for suggesting my name to the producers and giving me this opportunity," she said. She also spoke about her comfort level with Darling Krishna, as this is their collaboration. "It was special to share the screen with Krishna once again. The comfort level allows me to emote naturally," she explained.

Actor Nagabhushan, who also features in the film, praised R Chandru's passion for cinema. "If the role is good, I'll enjoy it, even if it's a comedy. The characters in comedy have evolved over the years, and it was a joy to be part of this project," he added.

Father, presented by Anand Pandit, is set to release in multiple languages. The film's dialogues are written by Manju Mandavya, with cinematography by Sugnan and music by Nakul Abhyankar.

A stunning Manoj Bajpayee in a demanding Kanu Behl film

SHREYAS PANDE

DESPATCH
Director: Kanu Behl
Starring: Manoj Bajpayee, Shahana Goswami, Rituparna Sen, Parvati Sehgal, Mamik Singh, Nikhil Vijay
Streamer: ZEE5

RATING 2.5/5

A FRAIL, middle-aged print journalist is desperately looking for a front-page breaking story at a time when news is going digital. His name is Joy (Manoj Bajpayee) but there is nothing joyful about his life. He has an unhappy marriage with his wife Shweta (Shahana Goswami). He does not come home for days. In a scene, he uncomfortably makes love in a car with his junior, Varsha (Parvati Sehgal). Joy's character is loosely inspired from the life of slain journalist Jyotirmoy Dey, who was more dramatically explored in Hansal Mehta's web series Scoop. Here, it's more existential. There's more focus on the absurdity of the investigation that Joy engages in to get to the truth. He is not driven by a journalistic vigour of exposing a scam for greater good, and the filmmaking does not imbibe any sense of urgency to his journey, either. There are no unexpected twists and turns, or any breaking news to save the day. The only thing that's twisted is Joy's fate; the only thing which breaks is his nose. This is a Kanu Behl film, after all.

With his last film Agra, Kanu explored the dark realities of young, hormonal men in North India. There is a raw matter-of-factness in his storytelling which leaves a metallic taste in the mouth. He doesn't want to create a seamless cinematic experience; rather, he wants to jolt. It takes the shape of some disturbingly violent sequences in his debut Titli (2014), where characters unflinchingly slam hammers on each other. That way, Despatch is not as obviously provocative and audacious as his last two films. Rather, it unfolds over a laborious length, with scenes that feel unending and an investigative thriller-like plot that refuses to behave like one.

Joy does everything that is demanded of the genre. Being a veteran journalist, he has his foot in every nook and corner of the city. He works covertly with the police and trails them to gangster dens, only to almost get killed in the ensuing gunfire. In a hilarious scene, he enters a company building pretending to be the auditor so as to collect evidence for a scam he is uncovering. It unfolds with him running from door to door, evading security guards through his awkward maneuvers. Joy feels almost like an accidental protagonist of the film, with how indifferently he is treated by writers Ishani Banerjee and Kanu. Joy seems to have come right out of the mundane world of French existentialists Albert Camus and Jean Paul Sartre in terms of the perpetual dryness that he carries. Manoj brings out Joy's astounding desperation and pent-up frustration through his unusual physicality. His performance carries the weight of a long life led in a metropolis.

The film becomes more like a character study of Joy as the camera observes him from a distance, not giving us moments to empathise. Kanu makes the narrative linger a lot without having a central idea to fall back on. A long, roughly enacted and uncomfortable sex scene between Joy and Shweta becomes a gateway to understand the sheer lack of love in their relationship. Kanu brings a decisive sense of ugliness to these scenes as the camera sneaks closer to the character's faces as they try to snuggle and kiss. It goes beyond what is expected, often breaking the cinematic illusion. As a result, the experience does become cumbersome and difficult to sit through, for how seemingly little we are invested in the characters. It also irks to see the sub-plot of Joy's relationship with his wife to have been left incomplete after a range of compelling sequences that underline their toxic complexity. Instead, there are newer characters introduced in the last hour, leaving more doors opened. It edges to become all the more chaotic as it reaches the final act to the protagonist's death, which is not pitiable.

Despatch is a film that demands a lot of patience. It is also a film that never rewards that patience with a sense of release. All of it seems intentional to create an experience that is not exactly gripping or even minutely reminiscent of a tout journalism-thriller. But the subversion is not strong enough to sustain. It starts to become more novelistic in its scope, with low reliance on cinematic tools. Perhaps that's why some of it also feels lost in translation.
